

FIRST FLOAT to come down the Millrace during the 1956 Canoe Fete carried Queen Madelene and her four princesses. That float was built by the winners of last year's Canoe Fete Tau Kappa Epsilon Phi Gamma Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, and Carson hall.

DISASTER BEFELL 'WILLIE, the Singing White,' when it caught fire after passing the judges' stand at the 1956 Canoe Fete. A can of burning oil, representing a stage-light, sent a spark into the paper napkin covering of the float, and the paper and wood design burned quickly.

BILL MAINWARING, left, received the Koyl cup from Dean of Men Ray Hawk, right, at the Prom Thursday night. The cup goes annually to the outstanding junior man on the campus. Mainwaring will be editor of the Emerald next year.

MARCIA MAUNEY, junior in journalism, was awarded the Gerlinger cup as the outstanding junior woman. The cup was presented at the Junior Prom Thursday night by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger.

FRESHMEN STRONG MEN give a strong tug the rope at Thursday's tug of war with sophomore men. The frosh managed to win the contest, but just about everybody got wet.
