Emerald Awards Made at Banquet

Awards to outstanding members of the Emerald staff were made at the daily's annual banquet Tuesday night at the Student Union.

Joe Rigert, Emerald associate editor, was named the school of journalism's most outstanding senior. Rigert and Emerald editor Gordon Rice were designated as the school's students with highest scholarship.

Sam Vahey, managing editor, was presented the Turnbull-Hall award, which traditionally is given to a graduating senior for four years of distinguished news-editorial service to the Emerald.

Donna Runberg, former business manager, was given the Winship-Pegg award in recognition of outstanding service to the Emerald's business staff.

Jo Anne Milligan was designated the outstanding freshman woman in advertising by Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary.

Several traditional humorous awards were also presented at the staff banquet.

Students Named For SU Service

Service awards were presented to almost 60 students at the Student Union banquet held Monday night in the SU ballroom. The awards, based on initiative, cooperation, reliability, and continued interest, were given for outstanding contribution to the Student Union program.

The certificates were signed by A. L. Ellingson, director; Jack Socolofsky, board chairman, and Adell McMillan, program director of the SU.

Those receiving awards were Judy Loucks, Bill Mainwaring, Evelyn Nelson, Judy Ecklund, Priscilla Herrington, Mary Jo Fourier, Cay Mundorff, Anne Heltzel, Frank Ingram, Joan Long, Nancy Marston and Sharon Rafferty.

The Sunday evening meeting will begin at 6 and will end at 7:30. Ken Peterson will be in charge.

Christian House

Christian House is having its annual outdoor buffet supper honoring graduates of the University and of Northwest Christian college Sunday at 5:30 p.m. All students are invited to attend and visiting guests are welcome. Reservations are necessary and may be made by calling Christian House DI 5-3491 or ticket chairman Muriel Horton at DI 5-0214. The program will be informal and graduates will participate under the leadership of the Christian House president, Don L. Smith.

The Christian House alumni banquet will be held Monday at 8:15 p.m. Bob Randall is president of this group and Mary Lou Watts is secretary. New graduates and alums are invited to call Christian House for reservations.

The executive council will hold its final meeting of the year at 4 p.m. Wednesday afternoon. Plans for the National Conference of the Disciples Student Fellowship will be made and delegates chosen. The conference theme is "Religion and the Arts." It is to be held in Estes Park, Colo., Aug. 25-31.

Two members of the Christian House group will be leaving next week for nationally sponsored Work Campus: Nell Carlson for Flanner House in Indianapolis, Indiana; and Wally York for East Kilbride, near Glasgow, Scotland.

First Baptist Church

Bob Gillikan will continue his lesson on the Christian life for the 9:45 a.m. college class on Sunday. Special music will be provided by the Bob Reid, Bud Lindstrand, Ed Heppner and Bob Gillikan quartet.

Vance H. Webster will speak this Sunday for the first time since his recent trip to New York. All graduating seniors will be honored at the 11 a.m. church service.

The series of discussions on religious sects will be concluded at the 6:30 p.m. BY hour. The final discussion will be on the topic: "What do Jehovah's Witnesses Believe?"

The Sunday evening Singspiration will be held at Dr. Webster's home. Graduating seniors will be honored guests. Transportation will leave the church at 9:30 p.m.

Westminster Foundation

College-age conference is at Menucha on the Columbia river, directly east of Corbett, Aug. 31 through Sept. 6. Arnold B. Come, professor of systematic theology at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, will be the main speaker. The theme is "The Theology of Love." Recreation includes swimming, tennis, volleyball, horse shoes, ping pong, softball, croquet, hiking and square dancing. The cost is $20 for the week. This includes registration fee, room, board and tuition. Registration blanks can be obtained at Westminster House or from Marine Avery, chairman for Eugene.

Next fall, Presbyterian students are sponsoring a program of discussion groups on the following subjects: Christianity and politics; Christianity and other religions; church leadership; Christian faith and life; church music; and "For Graduate Students Only." The first evening program will be Sept. 16, with an orientation supper for all new students at Westminster at 5:30 p.m. A song fest and open house are planned for Wednesday of orientation week.

Religious Directors' Association

The Religious Directors' association will hold a family picnic at Armitage state park Saturday evening at 5 p.m. Cars will leave Gerlinger hall at 4:45 p.m. Food arrangements are being made by Mrs. Kenneth Peterson, DI 3-2650 and Mrs. Clarence H. Elliott at Christian House. This will be the final get-together with three members of the group who will be leaving campus at the close of school or during the summer. They are J. C. Perkins, acting head of the religion department; Eileen Lindblad of the YWCA; and William Weber of Gamma Delta Lutheran group.
