

Many Scholarships Given To Outstanding Students

Scholarship awards for the year 1956-57 have been announced by the office of student affairs.

The General Motors scholarship went to Bob Archibald; the Jimmy Bureson Jr. scholarship to Keith Barker. Roger Diddock was presented the Skull and Dagger-William C. Frager Memorial scholarship. The Rockwell scholarships were awarded to Russ Sloop, Sandra Schori and Walter Schreck. Schreck also received the R. J. Reynolds scholarship.

ASUO scholarships were granted Charles Mitchelmore, Donald Swanson, June Scott and Helen Simon. Phi Gamma Delta-Robert C. Jones Memorial scholarship went to Ronald Spicer and the John J. Rogers pre-medical scholarship was given to Richard H. Johnson.

Joseph P. Zimmerman and Eva Zimmerman scholarships were awarded to Bruce Bloomfield, Cecilia Clogston, Lee Ramsey, Agnes Thompson and Dorothy Wada. Peter McCart received the Harold R. Jones scholarship. Mark Robbins was presented with the Ralph Hill scholarship and Terrence Maddox won the Clarence Bishop scholarship. Both awards are divisions of the distinguished alumni scholarships.

The Dean Walker scholarship went to Philip McHugh; the Maurice Harold Hunter leadership award went to Darrel Brittsan. Hazel Forsythe was awarded the Hazel P. Schwering Memorial scholarship and Janice Eckhout received the Quota scholarship. Zonta club awarded Doris Allen its scholarship and Betty Seley won the Marjorie Thompson Reynolds scholarship. Phi Theta Upsilon scholarships were awarded Ester Strom, Priscilla Herrington, Bonnie Coons and Sue Longnecker.

A.W.S. Awards

Associated Women Students awards were presented to Dorothy Allen, Sharon Leuthold and Evra Jensen. Delta Delta Delta scholarship went to Janice Milton and Marjorie Shreeve.

Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers scholarships were presented to Martha Quam, Sonja Meyers, Carolyn Fredrickson, Dorothea Hicks, Martin Williams, Anita Allen, Louise McManigal, Phyllis Ann Higdon and Darrellyn Ettel. Kwama scholarships went to Janet Bellin, Sandra Humphreys, Estelle MacGregor, Helen Louise Simon, Judy Norton and Dyanne Schneider.

State fee awards went to Robert Adler, Doris Allen, Beverly J. Anderson, Marilyn R. Avery, Dale D. Bajema, Kathryn A. Beatty, Robert Beatty, William Bechen, Barbara J. Beck, Janet Bellin, Beverly J. Bowman, Larry Brice, James A. Brooks, Merle R. Burk, Molly Carr, Marilyn A. Christensen, Bonnie M. Coons, Milford F. Cundiff, Alvin Denham, Laura Dewees, Shirley D. Dunaway, John D. Earle, Nancy L. Ferguson, Erik Hansen, James D. Harryman, Suzanne Helfrecht, Dorothea E. Hicks, and Sandra Humphreys.

State Fee Awards

Similar awards also went to Evra Jensen, John E. Johnson, Gladys Jongeling, Karen Kruse, Sandra M. Lien, Paul J. Lizundia, Jean E. McPherson, Estelle M. MacGregor, Carl Mark, Gladys Maude, Edward C. Meihoff, Joan E. Meltebeke, Marlene Metzger, Marcha M. Meyers, Janice G. Michael, James S. Noble, Barbara A. Papulski, Katherine Pope, Karen Rice, Charles E. Richardson, Daye C. Robinette, JoAnne Rogers, Susan Ryder, Gyla B. Seal, Thora M. Seaver, Betty J. Seley, William G. Sinclair, Esther A. Strom, Dorothy A. West, Jay W. Whipple, Judith C. Wolf and Erika Waechter.

Stillman to Retire From University

After 34 years as a member of the University faculty, A. B. Stillman, professor of business administration, will retire at the end of this academic year.

Stillman plans to participate in a newly-organized educational program sponsored by the University of Alaska extension service. Under the program, retired professors will travel to remote military installations along the Distant Early Warning (DEW) line of the U.S. Air Force for a term of eight weeks.

He will begin the term Oct. 1 and will instruct in the fields of business and economics.

Stillman received his bachelor's degree from the University of Oregon and his master's degree from the University of Washington.

READ EMERALD WANT ADS

Journalism Honorary Picks 1956-57 Officers

Marcia Mauney, junior in journalism, was elected president of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism honorary, at the organization's meeting Tuesday.

Other new officers include Carole Beech, vice president; June Scott, secretary; Geri Goebel, treasurer; Dorothy Barker, reporter; and Kay Macy, keeper of the archives.

Initiated at the meeting were Carole Beech, Carol Craig, Valerie Hersh, Marcia Mauney and Mary Lu McDonald.

Seniors to List Records

Graduating seniors are asked to fill out permanent activity records for the office of student affairs by next Friday.

These records will be used in connection with job references. They may be picked up in the office of student affairs in Emerald hall.

Summer Jobs Await Students

Many good opportunities for summer jobs for students are available, according to Karl Onthank, associate dean of student affairs. The summer jobs are mainly in the field of business.

Many firms employ students during the summers between the junior and senior year, the senior year and first year of graduate work, and between the first and second years of graduate work, he said.

Many opportunities for full-time placement are also available, according to Onthank. Several good business firms have contacted Onthank within the last few days.

Students interested in obtaining summer jobs should contact Onthank in the office of student affairs in Emerald 207.

Former Co-ed Seen in 'Glamour'

Alma Owen, 1955 University graduate and president of Alpha Chi Omega, is featured in this month's Glamour magazine job section.

During her senior year Miss Owen decided to become an airline stewardess because she "was too old not to have seen the country." She wrote to United Airlines and took her tests at the Eugene airport. After being accepted she was sent to the airline's five week school at Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Presently, Miss Owen, who comes from Portland, is based in New York and flies between New York, Cleveland, Chicago, and Denver.

PATRONIZE YOUR • ADVERTISERS •

We are always happy to give you what you want

Rush Inn
854 East 13th Ave.
On the Campus

Good-bye Girls

It was nice knowing you. We'll miss you this summer and we're looking forward to seeing you again next fall.

Remember! Our store is your headquarters for hats, costume jewelry, handbags, gloves and those unusual gifts.

The Bonnet Nook

921 Willamette

We'll be looking for you next fall...

Thanks for Your Patronage This Year

SHISLER'S MARKET

304 E. 13th

DI 4-1342

Planning a Busy Summer?

... and transportation companies are also extremely busy this time of year. Now is the time to make reservations for travel home at the end of school or for that big summer vacation trip in this country or abroad.

... it costs no more to consult a travel agent—your TRAVEL AGENT.

... we specialize in honeymoon arrangements for graduating seniors or flunking juniors and the sophs and freshmen find our services ideally suited for slim wallets.

... but seriously, we do appreciate your patronage; and suggest you take advantage of our experience and know-how.

Eugene Travel Service

Eugene Hotel
DI 5-8431

Bronson Travel

85 W. Broadway
DI 5-0338