Two-Year Awards Made by Britain

Lists are now open of two-year Marshall scholarships for seniors and graduate students to study at British universities. Awards include fare and $1540 a year living expenses.

Three scholarships will be awarded in each of four divisions of the United States. In the three years of the program, 36 Americans have received awards. Winners have come from 23 states but no Oregon student has received one.

Any American student of either sex, married or single, under 28 years old, and having three years' college education is eligible. Awards are made on the basis of character as well as scholarship.

Deadline for applications is October 31. They may be addressed to H. M. Consul General, San Francisco, Cal. Applications should include preference for university in Britain and study subjects.

BRIDES! If you married since the last election, you have to register again to vote in the November 6 election. Be sure your new name is in the book! Oregon deadline is Oct. 6.

Nixon Meeting

Nixon remarked that former President Truman was right in sending troops to Korea when he did. However, he said, the past Democratic administrative policies "made war more possible."

Answering Stevenson's charge that the Suez crisis showed alarming lack of judgement, Nixon replied that the situation is being handled by Secretary Dulles and President Eisenhower "in the best way they believe possible." He said only time would tell, but he had complete faith in Eisenhower's record.

In answering one of Kefauver's charges brought up by newsmen, that "one in ten Americans do not have enough to eat," Nixon replied that "pockets of poverty" do exist, but that "considerable progress" is being made to eliminate them. The Eisenhower administration, he said, has a good record in this area.

UT Season Ducats Remain for Sale

Season tickets to the University Theatre's productions will be on sale today on the mezzanine of the Student Union from 1 to 5 p.m. Next week students can obtain tickets at the University Theatre box office in Villard Hall, beginning Monday.

The ticket, which sells for five dollars, entitles the holder to reserved seats at five of the six major productions of the year. Members receive material in advance, and may indicate the date they wish to attend and the approximate location of their seats.

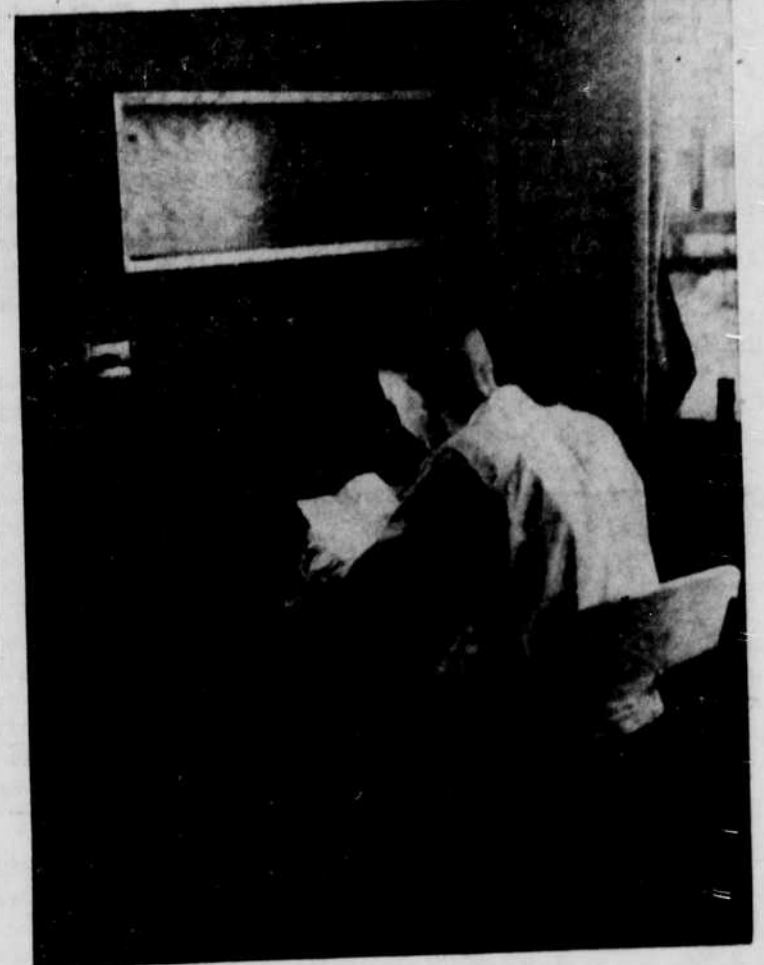

Tickets are transferrable, both from one person to another, and from one production to another. The University Theatre also offers periodic bonus attractions free to season ticket holders.

Special arrangements are made by the UT to enable its patrons to attend special programs at reduced prices.

The first attractions which will be offered will be "The Country Girl," on Sept. 28 and 29, Oct. 5 and 6, and the "Turnabout Theatre" on Oct. 8.

The box office of the University Theatre will open Monday, Sept. 24.

PATRONIZE YOUR ADVERTISERS

STUDENTS WHO CAME to college for a little book learning will begin to get a taste of it next week when classes start Monday for all students. Here a freshman in Earl Hall gets in a little preparation as he surveys one of the books which he will use in his courses.

Saturday Mourning Set For OSC Class Sessions

More than 150 Saturday morning classes will be held at Oregon State college to allow for an expected fall enrollment of 6800. Approximately 30 percent of all students will be taking Saturday classes.

The change is designed to use Saturday as effectively as any other weekday morning. Regular Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday class meetings have been planned to level off use of classrooms and laboratories.

House Candidates Set Tuesday Panel

Nine Oregon House of Representative candidates will be in a bi-partisan panel on social legislation at the Student Union Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The discussion will be on health, education, and welfare. There will be a brief presentation by each speaker followed by questions from the audience. The meeting is open to the public.

Participating in the panel will be Edwin E. Cone, V. Edwin Johnson, Ernest Schrenk, Loren L. Stewart, Charles Paddock, Richard O. Eymann, Florence Reed Cook, Keith D. Skelton, and Glen Stadler.

Med School Prof Gets $4400 Grant

An associate professor of medicine at the University of Oregon Medical School, Dr. Arthur J. Seaman, was named by the American Heart Association as a $4400 grant-in-aid recipient for research in the field of cardiovascular diseases.

The Association's research committee awarded the grant for controlled long-term study of the effects of anticoagulant therapy in patients with coronary artery disease.

Dr. Seaman estimated that the study would take five years. His grant was part of a $1,042,817 fund given to 180 scientists.

Psych Department Gets Research Aid

A program to train rehabilitation counselors is being financed by a $15,000 grant made to the University of Oregon department of psychology by the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare.

Five graduate fellowships of $1600 and staff additions will be provided by the funds, according to Leona E. Tyler, professor of psychology.
