Speakers Named For Fall Talks

The browsing room schedule for fall term has recently been released, according to Miss Bernice Rise, browsing room librarian. Browsing room lectures are held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings in the Adelaide Church Memorial browsing room in the Student Union.
The tentative schedule for fall term lectures is as follows:
October 3: "In the Glory That Is Greece." F. M. Combella, professor of classical languages will be the lecturer, and P. J. Powers, assistant professor of romance languages will be discussion leader.
'Nasser and Suez'
October 10: A panel discussion on "Nasser and the Suez" will feature Charles F. Schleicher, professor of political science, as chairman of the panel. Other panel members will be Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, Kenneth G. Orr, professor of anthropology, and J. Cudd Brown, instructor in political science.
Oct. 17: "In Praise of Folly." Lecturer will be Quirinus Breen, professor of history, and Hoyt Trowbridge, professor of English, will lead the discussion following the lecture.
'Ulysses' Is Topic
Oct. 24: The lecture will be on James Joyce's "Ulysses." Lecturer will be F. M. Dickey, assistant professor of English.
Oct. 31: Colored slides will be shown in connection with the topic "The Awakening of the Indian Village." Paul Means, head of the department of religion, will deliver the lecture, and C. P. Schleicher, professor of political science, will lead the discussion.
Nov. 7: "Literature and the Freudian Circle" will be the topic of Carlisle Moore, associate professor of English. Discussion leader will be R. A. Littman, associate professor of psychology.
Slides of Austria
Nov. 14: Colored slides will be a feature of the lecture by E. A. Cykler, professor of music, on the topic "Art and Music in Austria." Leading the discussion will be D. M. Dougherty, head of the foreign languages department.
Nov. 28: "The Short Story in Our Time" will be the topic of James B. Hall, associate professor of English. W. A. Williams, associate professor of history, will lead the discussion.
Dec. 5: E. R. Bingham, associate professor of history will lecture on "Charles Erskine Scott Wood: an Era and a Realm." Discussion leader will be Lucian Marquis, instructor in political science.

Bunion Derby Chairmen Announced

Chairmen for the annual Bunion Derby, progressive dance scheduled for Oct. 5, have been named by Larrilyn Carr and Barbara Burns, general co-chairmen of the dance.
Sharon Rafferty and Jemi Cain are in charge of refreshments; Laurie Scott and Clayre Carter, judging; Pepper Allen and Charmon Ford, publicity; Carol Wolleson, finance; Sharon Meyer and Molly Leu, promotion; Barbara Moody, music; Nora Walsh and Marcia Bishopric, house coordination and Cookie Jacobs and Peggy Wade, hats committee.
During the Bunion Derby, members of men's living organizations visit women's houses for a short period of dancing, progressing around campus throughout the evening.
Following the "tour," men may return to the house of their choice for a final hour's dancing. Music for the event will be broadcast on KUGN.

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field

"To catch a man," said Violette
"The wisest gals play hard to get!"
To seem remote and quite aloof
She sat six years upon the roof.

"It doesn't seem to work," she said
And so she clobbered them instead.
She shrugged, "I do the best I can Unconscious or not, a man is a man!"
