

Derby Memories Colorful, Many

By PAT TREECE
Emerald Feature Writer

Gone, but not forgotten, is another Bunion Derby. Swimming before our eyes are a thousand mental pictures, little order or sense to any of them, of that hectic evening.

Looking back we can still see the crazy costumes of the Phi Psi's. We won't forget the Chi Psi's either—those boys resembled one of Phil Silver's lost platoons in their khaki finery.

Gaiety and brotherhood reigned supreme when a giant Beta, ran around Hendricks Hall measuring the girls in an attempt to find one short enough for his tiny pal.

Little dancing and much window-shopping seemed to be the order of the day for the sweet-heart-shopping frat when they reached the freshman dorms.

Among the well-led groups was French Hall under command of a trumpet-blowing red head who sounded the charge whenever the Frenchmen were ready to move.

Following the example in Friday's Emerald cartoon was the guy who paid his nickel for the first dance, and then spent the evening.

We won't forget the uninhibited guy who fell asleep on the sofa either, or the fellow we asked if he was enjoying his first year of school only to find out he was a junior, or the khaki clad gent with the laurel leaf ring on his brow.

And too, little frosh women, nursing bruised and battered feet, no longer query, "Wonder why they call it the 'Bunion' Derby?"

'Oregon Record Clean' Hollis Tells Clubbers

PORTLAND (AP)—Dean Orlando Hollis told the Oregon Duck Club Friday he feels assured that the University of Oregon is as "clean as it appears" in observing the Pacific Coast Conference code.

Hollis, faculty representative to the conference, outlined steps leading to penalties assessed against UCLA, the University of Southern California and the University of Washington for under-the-table payments to athletes.

Some sports writers, especially in Southern California, "talk about Oregon being lily white as though that is a matter of disgrace," he said.

The University's clean record, Hollis said, came because the institution decided "to be worthy of being a state institution and the kind of place you fathers would like to send your boys."

Search for Missing Airman Continues

PORT ANGELES, Wash. (AP)—The search for an airman missing after two jet fighter planes collided over the rugged Olympic Peninsula was spurred today by the sighting of plane wreckage on the slopes of Mt. Olympus, 20 miles southwest of here.

Five ground parties, landed by helicopter, fanned out over various trails heading toward the wreckage, sighted on a glacier on the 5,000-foot level of the 8,150-foot mountain.

The missing airman is 1st Lt. Robert L. Canup Jr., 25, of Salisbury, N.C., one of four who parachuted Thursday after two F89D Scorpion jet interceptors collided in flight on a training mission from Paine Air Force Base.

Two of the fliers, 1st Lt. Eugene A. Hamby, 26, Hillsboro, Ore., and 2d Lt. George W. Deer, 22, Meadville, Miss., walked out to safety Friday.

1st Lt. Jim B. Paschall, 22, Paradise, Texas, a radar observer, made his way out of the wilderness Saturday. All three were in good condition.

Canup also was a radar observer. Adding to hopes that he too survived the collision was the report of a farmer that he saw flares burning late last night southwest of where the wreckage was sighted.

Air Force and Navy planes searched from the air.

Stevenson Visits Oregon in Tour

By The Associated Press

Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for president, will visit Oregon this week to campaign for himself and other Democratic office seekers.

Stevenson is to arrive at the Portland airport at 2 p.m. Wednesday where he has scheduled a conference with party leaders.

He will then travel by motorcade to the Roosevelt Hotel and will meet with women representatives of Labor's Committee on Political Education at the Boiler-makers' hall.

At 7:30 p.m. Stevenson is scheduled to address a public rally at the Portland civic auditorium. He will leave Oakland by plane immediately after the auditorium talk.

President Eisenhower will speak at the Portland auditorium Oct. 18. His schedule was announced earlier.

Elsewhere in Oregon there were these political developments.

Douglas McKay, GOP candidate for the U.S. Senate seat held by Democratic Sen. Wayne Morse, took a day off from campaigning. The early part of next week he has scheduled appearances in the Willamette Valley and Southern Oregon.

Morse, visiting a number of Lane County communities criticized what he called the "partnership giveaway scheme of the Eisenhower administration which destroyed the people's heritage in America's great multi-purpose dam sites."

Sen. Richard Neuberger, who has been campaigning on behalf of Democratic candidates, told a Jewish youth group Sunday that President Eisenhower was right when he questioned the wisdom of limiting a president to two terms. Neuberger said he would support Eisenhower in any move to repeal the anti-third term amendment to the Constitution.

EMERALD HEADS TO MEET

All makeup, news and copy desk personnel from all Oregon Daily Emerald departments will meet Tuesday at 12:45 p.m. in a required training session at the University Press.

Mt. Hood Forest Fires Quiet Down

ESTACADA, Ore., Oct. 7. (AP)—The dangerous fire in the Mount Hood National Forest that for a time threatened valuable timber stands, appeared to have quieted down tonight.

East winds which fanned the blaze over a 300-acre area of slash, had died down somewhat and the humidity had risen to 49 per cent.

Some 280 firefighters were in the area—180 working all today and the rest taking over the night-shift.

Damage to timber so far has been slight. But young trees planted in the cut-over land five years ago were all lost when the blaze raced out of control in the Fish Creek bottoms yesterday.

Two Men Stabbed In Klamath Area

KLAMATH FALLS, Oct. 7. (AP)—Two men were in critical condition after stabbing affrays in Klamath county last night.

Police said R. M. Kelly, Merrill potato contractor, suffered seven knife wounds in the abdomen while arguing with a man known only as Polack.

Polack later turned himself in to Merrill City Marshal Del Reed. Reed started to drive him to the city jail but Polack jumped out of the car and ran away, Reed said.

Lewis Gibbons, 22, Chiloquin ranch worker, was stabbed five times in the abdomen in the course of a drinking party. Police Chief H. C. Smith reported.

Six others who were attending the party are being held.

Klamath Infant Scalded Fatally

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 7. (AP)—A one-month-old baby girl was scalded to death today by a 3-year-old neighbor boy who was trying to give her a bath.

The dead infant was Debora Lee Nieminen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nieminen, who lived in a trailer camp on the outskirts of Klamath Falls.

They were moving from one trailer to another and had left the baby on a bed, police quoted them as saying.

A little neighbor boy, whose name was withheld by police, walked into the trailer, undressed the child, put it into a tub under a water faucet and turned on the scalding hot water.

The child was dead by the time the parents returned.

As part of the membership drive this week freshmen will have an opportunity to see how the YWCA functions in public affairs, world service and religion. YW sponsored activities will also be explained at this time.

Each freshman commission is aided by a junior advisor and headed by officers who will be elected as soon as possible from among members of the freshman groups.

WAC Officer to Meet Interested Seniors

Senior women interested in obtaining commissions in the Women's Army Corps have been invited to meet Lt. Col. Ruth S. Reece Tuesday at the Student Union.

Col. Reece, a WAC procurement officer, will be available for conferences from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 4 p.m.

The Women's Army Corps is now offering direct commissions to women with college backgrounds. Applicants must be between 20 and 33 years old and meet the mental, physical and character qualifications.

Col. Reece was graduated from the University of Indiana and took graduate work in vocational guidance at George Washington University. She joined the WAC in 1942. A graduate of the Command and General Staff School, Col. Reece served overseas during World War II in Australia, New Guinea and the Philippines.

Amphibians Tryouts To be Held Tuesday

Tryouts for the campus women's swimming honorary, Amphibians, will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Gerlinger pool, according to Ellen Fitzsimmons, president.

The honorary is planning a program for Dad's Weekend this year and annually sponsors a water show during spring term.

Women of all classes are eligible to try out.

Fags Said Cause Of LA Smog Pall

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Something else has been blamed for Los Angeles smog—cigarettes.

The latest report of the air pollution control district comes up with the calculation that 64,806,230 cigarettes are smoked every day in Los Angeles County. This, the APCD estimates, adds 12 tons of contaminants in the air every day.

Positions Ready on YWCA Sr. Cabinet

Two positions are available on the YWCA Senior Cabinet for any interested woman with junior or senior standing. A chairman for the service and the summer projects committee are the posts that need to be filled.

Petitions are due Friday and should be turned in at the YW office in Gerlinger Hall.

The service chairman's duties include working with various agencies in the community to explore opportunities for individual work and group projects, and helping to place interested students.

The summer promotion chairman does work for the student YW magazine and helps publicize summer projects. Experience is desired for this position.

Polio Vaccine Shots Given at Infirmary

Students may still make appointments for Salk polio vaccine shots at the infirmary according to Dr. Fred N. Miller, health service director.

The series of three shots is financed by the individual students breakage deposit at the rate of $1 per shot. Letters of explanation have been sent to the parents of all students under 21 so that the necessary parental authorization can be given.
