"Man and Superman" Shows This Week at UT

"Man and Superman," which opened Friday night, will be presented again, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week, with curtain time a 8 p.m. Directed by F. J. Hunter, the George Bernard Shaw production marks the first play of the fall season by the U.T.

Ann Becker and Doug Brinkman head the cast as Shaw's Ann and Tanner. The supporting cast includes, John Hutchinson, as Octavius; Sandra Pearson, as Sue Bayliss; Bill Visteen as Roebuck Ramsden; and Bob Zagone as Mendoza and The Devil.

"Man and Superman" is a 'lovechase' of a man by a woman. Tanner, the most progressive thinker of them all, is trapped by destiny, and Ann, into a marriage that he futilely attempts to avoid by racing across half of Europe in a very elegant automobile.

Tickets may still be purchased for $1 at the U.T. box office on Monday through Friday from 1 to 5.

Clarence Froome

Or how to reduce your tax bill

"There used to be a saying back in 1921 when I joined Union Oil. It was 'The less government, the better.' We believed it, too.

"Today it's the other way 'round. People seem to think that more and more government can solve more and more of their problems.

"They look to government for pensions, for unemployment insurance, for federal housing, for medical aid—for all kinds of securities we used to depend on ourselves for.

"Now there's nothing wrong with taxes that pay for defense, and other necessities. But we're kidding ourselves if we think Uncle Sam is a rich relative with an inexhaustible supply of cash we can tap whenever we need it.

"Fact is, government is more of a poor relation. It produces nothing. It pays no taxes. Anything you or anyone else gets from it first has to be taken away from you and somebody else.

"So, obviously, the more you let the government do for you, the more it's going to cost you."

CLARENCE FROOME: "THE MORE YOU LET GOVERNMENT DO FOR YOU, THE MORE IT COSTS YOU."

In 1921 when Clarence Froome started with Union Oil as a machinist, 1 person in 15 worked for the government. Today (Clarence Froome is now a Division Superintendent) 1 person in 8 is on government payroll. And Uncle Sam takes 11 times more money from you as taxes than he did in 1921.

Admittedly, there's a bigger job to be done today. But the danger of a constantly enlarging government goes far deeper than its cost to the citizen.

Because each time you let the government do a job you should and can do better, you give up a part of your personal freedom.
