

JAMES D. ZELLERBACH of San Francisco, Calif., President Eisenhower's choice as the new ambassador to Italy, talks at the State Department in Washington Jan. 3 with Clare Boothe Luce, who resigned the post as United States ambassador in Rome. Both Zellerbach and Mrs. Luce are in the capital for conference with State Department officials. (AP Wirephoto).

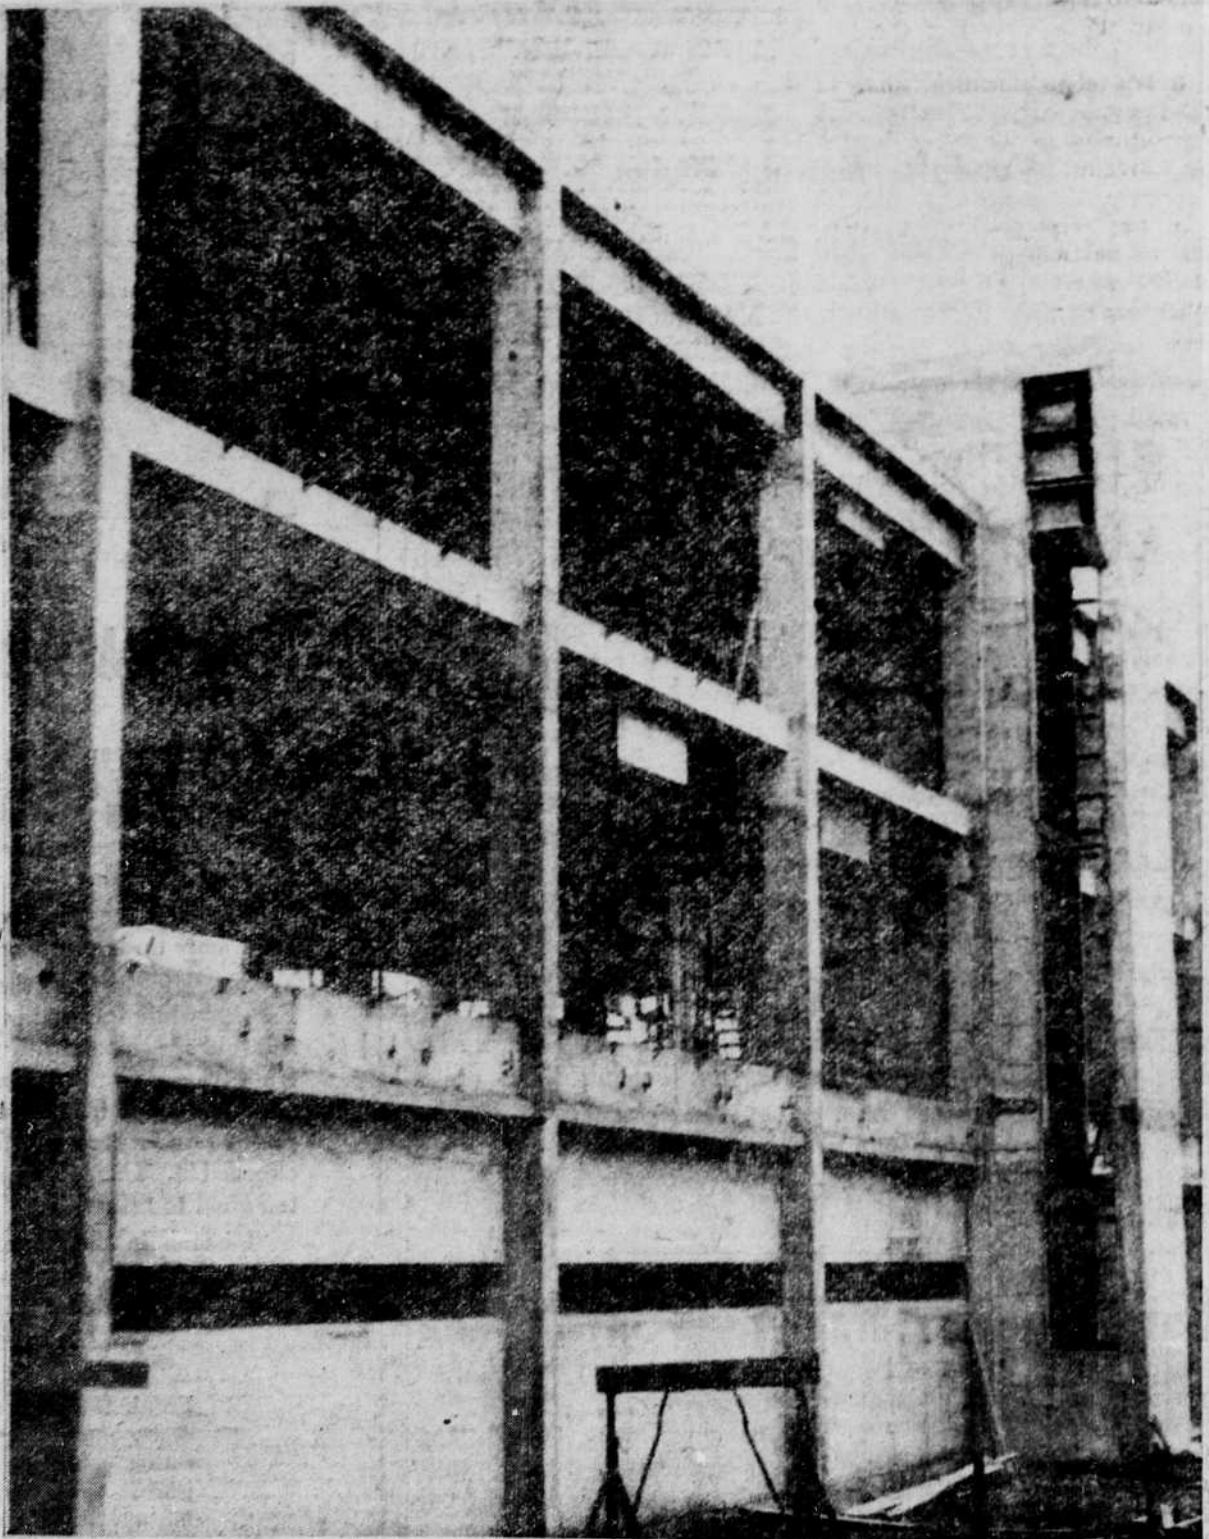

SEN. THEODORE FRANCIS GREEN (D-R.I.), right, oldest member of the new congress, offers a bit of advice to the youngest member of the lawmaking body, Rep. John D. Dingwell (D-Mich) as they met on Capitol Hill. Dingwell at 30 is the youngest member of the House and Senate. Green, who is 89, is the oldest man ever to sit in the U. S. Senate. (AP Wirephoto).

AN' THE WALL CAME TUMBLING DOWN on the old wing of the school of architecture. The building was torn down to make way for a new wing of the school, which is expected to be ready next year.

THIS MAP of the Suez Canal locates positions of sunken vessels and the sagging Ferdan bridge which are blocking the 103-mile waterway. The pride of the United Nations salvage fleet is at El Cap—the point which became the cease fire line between Anglo-French forces and Egyptians—waiting a signal to begin clearance work. (AP Wirephoto map).

GOING UP is this south end wall on the new arch structure and art school building on the north end of the campus. The pouring of concrete forms has nearly been completed on the new structure, to be known as Lawrence Hall. (Photo by Brant Ducey)