

Sidewalk Brawl Jails Newlyweds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dillard Bowling, 28, and his bride, Ruby, 43, spent their wedding night in jail on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The Bowlings told Judge Daniel C. Handley they got to drinking during the wedding celebration and wound up in a sidewalk argument.

"It's a little early for you to start fighting so here's a wedding present," Judge Handley said. "Costs remitted."

Speed Queen Hunary, Tells It to the Judge

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — It was all the high school's fault, a teenage girl told City Judge James Demopolos as she answered a charge of driving her father's car 70 miles an hour within the city limits.

She told the judge she could not get served in the 30-minute lunch period at the school cafeteria so she ate at a restaurant three miles away. She said she was hurrying a little to get back before the lunch hour was over.

Neuberger Asks For Recognition Of Sen. McNary

By FRANK W. VAILLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Oregon Democrat today suggested two Western Republicans for inclusion in a new listing of the nation's five greatest senators.

A special Senate subcommittee, headed by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.), is in the process of making selections for special recognition in a proposed new Senate portrait gallery.

McNary Recommended

Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.) said he has recommended the late Republican Sens. George W. Norris of Nebraska and Charles L. McNary of Oregon because of their leadership in the field of conservation and resource development.

"Our own nation, so comparatively new, may be heavily reliant on statesmen like Norris and McNary who early foresaw the peril of using up too recklessly and selfishly the treasure-trove put on this continent by the Almighty for our use," Neuberger said.

Courage Cited

"Both Norris and McNary had the courage to defy majority opinion in their own party on numerous occasions, when they felt the public welfare demanded such a stand. Surely independence and integrity are qualities required of those who would qualify as the 'greatest' senators."

Norris served in the Senate from 1912 until 1942; McNary from 1917 until 1944.

Except...

Up to two years ago, the look-alike Solomon twins did the same things together. Even had polio at the same time.

Except...

Linda recovered completely. Sandy didn't.

Even today, after some $1500 in March of Dimes help, she needs braces and crutches to get around.

Except...

Sandy, like thousands of other polio victims, still needs a lot more treatment. She'll get it—as much as she needs. You, who made the Salk vaccine possible, can provide that care. And, what is more, your dimes and dollars will also help train the minds and hands of the professional experts so desperately needed to give it.
