

Ducks, Bears Open Season

California Hosts Webfoots For Initial Conference Tilt

Ducklings Travel; Face Clark, Pilots

Oregon's freshman basketball squad completed their final drills Thursday in preparation for weekend games against the University of Portland junior varsity and Clark college.

The Ducklings leave for Portland at one o'clock this afternoon and will tip off with the Pilot jayvees at 8:15 tonight. Saturday night they face Clark college in Vancouver, Wash., at 8 p.m.

Special interest will be to Clark's game with the Oregon State Rooks which will be played tonight at Corvallis. Oregon's freshmen not only face Clark Saturday, but have two big ones with the Rooks later this season.

The ten-man Duckling squad that will make the trip include forwards Anderson, Robertson, Hugh Springer, Jerry Pflug and Dave Gross; center Jones, guards Rask, Lundstrom, Scott Russell and Ed Syring.

Assuming Robertson is able to play, the starting five should read like this: forwards, Robertson, 6-5, and Jerry Anderson, 6-4; center, Dale Jones, 6-5; guards, Chuck Rask, 6-0, and Doug Lundstrom, 5-11.

The Ducks eventual starting five should go against the Bear's fixtures: Forwards Don McIntosh and Friend, center Asplund, and guards Earl Robinson and Gabe Arrillaga. These five did all the scoring against Stanford Tuesday night, the Bears winning 59-45.

Belko and a squad of 12 flew out of Eugene last night and worked out in the 7000-seat Men's Gymnasium. It could be a shaky debut for Belko's first PCC tussle but Charlie Franklin expressed a team opinion before leaving. "We will be tough," he said.

Belko was asked about this yesterday. "You pick it," he said, "I'm not sure yet."

If we picked Moore, we would have to go on his outstanding performance against Wichita, during the Webfoot tour of the Southwest. His injured eye still unhealed, the former The Dalles star poured in 15 points, his high for the season, and contributed fine board and defensive strength. Morgan, on the other hand, has been erratic in some games and shined in the others. In seven games he has scored 40 points and picked off 18 rebounds, but the majority of his outstanding play came against Texas and Missouri. Morgan will probably get the nod with his performance in practice this week, however.
