

++ This Week in Pictures ++

PRINCE RAINIER III OF MONACO loosens his collar with the typical air of an expectant father at a news conference at the palace in Monte Carlo. His princess, the former actress Grace Kelley, is expecting their first child shortly. Rainier said that he and Grace have the selected name Gregoire Georges Pierre Richard for a boy, and Caroline Louise Marguerite, if the child is a girl.

COMPLIMENTS OF THE CRITICS—Actress Ingrid Bergman and actor Kirk Douglas hold New York Film Critics awards they received at a dinner in New York in their honor. Miss Bergman, who flew from Paris to accept the award, was picked as best actress of 1956 for her performance in "Anastasia." Douglas got best actor honors for his role in "Lust for Life." It was Ingrid's first U.S. visit in seven years. (AP Wirephoto).

ATTORNEY Meade Alcorn of Suffield, Conn., smiles broadly at recent GOP gathering at Hartford, Conn., before his name was entered as successor to Leonard W. Hall as Republican National chairman. (AP Wirephoto)

READY TO RULE—Workman puts last touches to cardboard head of Rabelais' merry giant, Pantagruel, which will "rule" over the famed Riviera carnival at Nice during February.

IN READINESS—This rattan cradle, lined with yellow quilted satin, was made in Paris for the expected child of the rulers of Monaco. One man worked 300 hours to make cradle.

MARCH OF DIMES

JANUARY 2-31

FRACTURED TEAM—Clifford Miron and his son, Alan, 2, relax with their broken legs in Milwaukee home. Father was injured while at work and the boy broke his limb at home.

HEFTY OFFSPRING—Katherina the rhinoceros watches its male baby after birth in zoo at Frankfurt, Germany. Zoo officials say it is first rhino born in captivity in Europe.