

++ This Week in Pictures ++

DOWN TO THE DOLOMITES—What appears to be a movie scene about the moon is really Italian parachute troops making a drop during maneuvers in Dolomite Mountains.

77TH BIRTHDAY—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur poses with huge cake during celebration of his 77th birthday, Jan. 26 in New York City. He attended annual reunion dinner of officers who were on his staff in the Pacific during World War II. The combination reunion-birthday party has been held annually since the end of the war. (AP Wirephoto).

KNOCK DOWN BLOW—Heavyweight Eddie Machen, of Redding Calif., is shown delivering the right hook to the jaw of Joey Maxim, former light-heavyweight champion, which floored him in the ninth round of their ten-round bout at Miami Beach. Maxim took a count of nine and managed to last out the fight, but Machen won on a unanimous decision. (AP Wirephoto).

IN NEW HOME—Harold Macmillan, the new British prime minister, and his wife, Lady Dorothy Macmillan, are photographed in their new residence, No. 10 Downing Street, London.

NEW NIXON HOME—Vice President Nixon has announced that he will purchase this stone residence in the northeast section of Washington, D.C., as new home for his family. The six-bedroom house was formerly occupied by the late Homer Cummings, attorney general in the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration. The purchase price was reported to be $75,000. (AP Wirephoto).

BROKEN BEAUTY SLEEP—Katinka, a cream Persian, curls tongue at cameraman who disturbed her nap while waiting to be judged at the Empire Cat Club's Show in New York.