Famous Choir to Appear Wednesday

By CAROLE BEECH
Religious News Editor

One of the outstanding choirs in the United States will be in Eugene Wednesday. The St. Olaf Lutheran Choir, under the direction of Olaf F. Christiansen, will present a concert at Eugene High School at 8 Wednesday evening.

The choir has made numerous national and world tours and is currently on tour in the West. Tickets for the concert are $1 for adults, 50 cents for children.

Christian House in Confab

Many members of Christian House will be participating in the program of the Oregon Christian Assembly which will be held Monday and Tuesday at First Christian Church. More than 700 persons will be attending the annual state convention.

The Sunday evening program at Christian house features a dramatic cast reading of "Release," lead by Virginia Gobble. The evening's theme is "The Christian Looks at Drama." A delegation of Christian house members will attend the planning meeting of the regional conference of the Disciple's Student Fellowship Saturday. Roger Weaver is the regional president. Tuesday night, students will meet for a potluck dinner at 5:30 before adjourning to attend sessions of the Oregon Christian Assembly.

Cartoon Deadline Set Saturday Noon

The deadline for entering the Student Union cartoon contest is Saturday noon. All cartoons must be delivered to Nadine Small, Alpha Chi Omega, by that time.

Sponsored by the SU creative arts committee, the contest is open to all students. Entries may be made in any of the three divisions: general, campus, or editorial cartoons.

Cartoons will be judged next week by a panel of qualified persons, after which the winning cartoons will be exhibited in the SU Art Gallery from Feb. 15 to March 5.

As all Art Gallery exhibits must be insured, the cartoonists are asked to submit, with their entries, an appraisal of the monetary value of their work. Those students wishing to have their work returned after the judging and the exhibition should include this request with the cartoons.

Additional information concerning the contest may be obtained from Miss Small at DI 5-7662.
