

THE AGE-OLD INDIAN burial ground on Memaloose Island near The Dalles, soon will be flooded by The Dalles Dam reservoir, and that 20th century invention—the helicopter—began removing Indian remains to a new burial ground on the Washington shore of the Columbia River. The helicopter carries two coffin-like boxes on its landing skids. (AP Wirephoto).

MOVING POST—Soviet scientist stands in tower, part of observation station on ice floe in northern Polar seas. Station has drifted more than 1,250 miles since its inception.

YEMENITE EVIDENCE—Tribesmen at Harib, in the remote Red Sea kingdom of Yemen, point to the rubble remains of a house which they say was smashed by British air raids from the neighboring British-allied protectorate of Aden. Peace talks to establish a permanent border between the adjoining territories in southeastern Arabia were proposed last week. (AP Wirephoto).

PRESIDENT ON 'VOICE' PROGRAM—President Eisenhower sits with his hand to his face in Washington, D.C., Feb. 25, just before beginning a world-wide radio broadcast marking the 15th year anniversary of the Voice of America. In his broadcast, Ike told the Middle East nations the menace of international Communism "could smash all their hard won accomplishments over night." (AP Wirephoto)

CHERI, IT'S COLD OUTSIDE—French cyclist wears mantle of snow over his poncho as snow storm swept the French capital Feb. 22. Unusually severe winter, coupled with the Suez-caused fuel shortage, has caused discomfort in France this year. (AP Wirephoto).

Despite Red jamming attempts, Radio Free Europe comes through powerfully and effectively to 70 million hopeful listeners behind the Iron Curtain. The truth of its broadcasts keeps alive faith and the spirit of freedom. No wonder Reds fear Radio Free Europe. No wonder the Iron Curtain captives take heavy risks to listen. Make sure the truth gets through! Each dollar you contribute sponsors a Minute of Truth on Radio Free Europe. Keeps its voice strong, free and effective. Official stations can give official views. Only Radio Free Europe can speak for the people themselves! Send your Truth Dollars to—
