selection of Duck Preview co-chairmen, in addition to Miss Schneider and Nunn, were Tom Waldrop and Sharon Lowery, Jim Smith and Marian Hoskins, Dorothy Gambelin and Dick Allen, and William Whitely.

Miss Schneider is a member of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary, chairman of the Student Union Coffee Hour committee, and was chairman of the YWCA Orientation Assembly and of the Dads' Quiz Show during Dads' Weekend. She is also a pledge of Phi Beta, women's music and speech honorary, and has worked on the Sophomore Whiskerina, Homecoming, and the 1956 Duck Preview.

Nunn is a member of Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, rally board was chairman of the Student Union Recreation Committee, and General Chairman of Dads' Weekend. He also worked on the Sophomore Whiskerino and the 1956 Duck Preview Weekend.

In selecting the Duck Preview chairmen, the Senate asked that they present an outline of their plans for approval at the next Senate meeting. Senate members also recommended that the present Duck Preview dating set-up, that of high school students dating college students for the Duck Preview dance, be continued. During the interviews, several petitioners had suggested that high school students would rather date high school students, and that each couple should double date with a college couple.

The Senate approved rally board membership for the coming year. Members are Dick Stables, chairman, George Brandt, Donna Lou Douglass, Judy Ecklund, Roger Gaffey, Bev Landon, Jemi Cain, Ellen Fitzsimmons, Cathy Peterson and Joanne Morrissey.

Two reports were accepted at the meeting, Dick Wood and Ann Banton, University representative, Winter Carnival held at Mount Hood in January, presented a financial statement and an outline of their work.

The six Senate members attending the Oregon Federation of College Leaders conference in Salem Feb. 8 and 9 also presented a report.
