

POLICE SUBDUE BESERK YOUTH — Detective K. T. Keegan (center with cigar) and an unidentified policeman (partly hidden at left) lead 16-year-old Frankie Joe Newton to a patrol car. Newton, in white T shirt, fired a rifle wildly into a Little Rock, Ark., neighborhood for three hours before he was subdued from behind.

PERPLEXED PATROLMAN—Traffic Patrolman Bill Palenik of Mason City, Iowa, is perplexed. Owners of two small foreign-made autos thought a downtown parking place big enough for one standard American car was large enough for two, thereby saving one meter fee. A tape measure, however, proved cars together were just a "bump or too long."

ATOMIC PLANT TO BE DEDICATED—The Army (April 23) permitted news photographers to visit this atomic power plant which will be dedicated at Ft. Belvoir, Va., next Monday. It is called a "package" plant because it is designed so that its components may be transported by air for installation at remote military stations, such as Arctic bases. The output, 1855 kilowatts, will be distributed as available on the Ft. Belvoir electrical system.

NEW TEXAS GIANT—Steam line expansion loop frames latest Texas skyscraper, a 330-foot wall, 28,000-barrels-per-day catalytic cracking unit, put into operation at Beaumont.

It's the percentage
that counts.. and the percentage of sales completed
through EMERALD WANT-ADS increases every day. Get results.
Put your ad in the

Call DI 5-1511, Ext. 218
and place your Classified Ad TODAY

Oregon Daily

EMERALD