

FLOATING DOWN THE MILLRACE Queen Sue Walcott and her court gallantly withstand the deluge which marked Friday night's Canoe Fete. One princess fends off the storm rains with an umbrella. (Photo by Nathan Bull).

TWO HOAGY CARMICHAELS get together to watch the 1957 Canoe Fete—held in a downpour Friday night. Hoagy Jr., is at left with his famous songwriter-entertainer father.

Oregon Daily

EMERALD

Saturday

VOL. LVIII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, OREGON, MAY 18, 1957 NO. 132

Honoraries to Tap At Campus Lunch

Six tappings will highlight one of the oldest features of Junior Week, the All-Campus Luncheon. The schedule of events for the luncheon includes the Queen's processional, 12:00; Asklepiad tapping, 12:15; Friar tapping, 12:25; Mortar Board tapping, 12:35; Skull and Dagger tapping, 12:45; Phi Theta tapping, 12:55; and Kwama tapping, 1:05. The Queen's recessional will end the event.

Box luncheon will be served by members of Kwama, Phi Theta Upsilon, and Skull and Dagger from 11:15 to 12. According to Edith Church, food chairman, ten tables, each capable of serving three lines will be used for fast service.

Menu for the picnic includes a ham sandwich, coke, potato chips, potato salad, and cupcakes.

Louie Blue, junior class president, will act as master of ceremonies. Guest of honor at the luncheon will be Governor Robert Holmes.

Weather permitting, the luncheon will be served on the old campus in back of Commonwealth. In case of rain the luncheon will be held in McArthur Court.

Luncheon Old Event

The luncheon dates back to the days when Junior Week was University Day. In 1908, when the first annual Junior Weekend was held, the luncheon was planned mainly to feed men busy on campus improvement.

Monday Deadline Set For Co-op Receipts

All members of the Co-op must turn in their pink receipts on or before Monday, May 20, in order to participate in the patronage refund. The receipts should be returned to the Co-op in the envelopes provided for this purpose.

GOV. HOLMES ... luncheon appearance

Upperclassmen Receive Awards

Upperclass scholarships for the school year 1957-58 have just been announced by the Associated Dean of Students office.

Three students receiving ASUO scholarships of $213 include Maurice Comeau, freshman in pre-med; Shirley Dunaway, sophomore in liberal arts; and Charles Mitchelmore, junior in journalism.

The John J. Rogers Pre-Medical scholarship of $500 was awarded to freshman Dennis Gould. The Mary Spiller scholarship of $250 was given to Virginia Rae Curtis, freshman in liberal arts.

Rockwell Scholarships Given Recipients of the Rockwell scholarships of $150 each, include Dorothy M. Jenkins, freshman in English; Harold L. Jones, sophomore in education; and Walter Schreck, sophomore in liberal arts.

Additional single scholarships include the Jimmy Bursleson Jr. (Continued on page three)

All Campus Sing To End Events Of Junior Week

"Serenade," the Junior Week All-Campus Sing, is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. Saturday evening at McArthur Court. This event will conclude the 1957 Junior Week festivities.

Singing groups from fourteen living organizations will compete for the first, second, and third place awards in the men's and women's divisions. Trophies will be awarded also to the best song leaders. Judges for the event are Norman Whitney, Bend; Miss Helen McPherson, Coos Bay; and Waldemar Hollensted, Coquille.

According to Co-chairman Ron Hershberger, song leaders from each organization must have all singers seated by 7:45 p.m. The fourteen singing groups will enter through the doorway of McArthur Court that is farthest south on University Street.

Organizations competing in the sing are, for the women, Ann Judson House, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, and Pi Beta Phi. The men participat-

(Continued on page 3)

Weekend Dates

Junior Week Schedule Saturday

8:30 a.m.-12 p.m.—Open House, Gerlinger
8:30 a.m.—Mother's Breakfast
8 a.m.-12 p.m.—Registration
11:15 a.m.-1:15 p.m.—All Campus Luncheon
1:30-4:30 p.m.—Reception, Gerlinger
1-3 p.m.—Registration
8 p.m.—All Campus Sing

Sunday

11 a.m.—Church
1 p.m.—Dinner at living organizations
2 p.m.—Philharmonic Concert

Canoe Fete Hit By Sudden Rain, But Floats Sail

Rain came to the Junior Week Canoe Fete Friday night, and not even the combined efforts of Queen Sue Walcott and her court, fifteen soppingly colorful floats and songwriter-performer Hoagy Carmichael could keep the Fete's only uninvited visitor away.

The first prize winners of the doused float parade, announced in anti-climax to the few remaining members of the audience,

The rain that fell between 3 and 7 p.m. Friday didn't fall enough.

University officials had $3000 rain insurance for the Canoe Fete, according to assistant SU director Jim Pond. But for the University to collect, .05 of an inch of rain would have had to fall at the Millrace between 3 and 7 p.m.

R. C. Holt of the U.S. Weather Bureau told The Emerald Friday night that only .04 inches fell during the four hour stretch.

were Sigma Chi, Alpha Delta Pi and Lambda Chi Alpha. Their winning presentation followed the theme "Madame Butterfly" with a scene from the operetta set in a Japanese home.

'Calypso' Second

"Calypso" of Phi Kappa Psi, Pi Beta Phi and Ann Judson

House was awarded second place. Three gigantic bongo drums made up the float with a solo dancer and four others atop the drums.

Third prize went to the Fete's highest float—the Eiffel Tower of Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Alpha Theta and Pi Kappa Phi. The theme, "I Love Paris," was carried out in scenes on a revolving platform under the tower depicting park bench lovers, a can-can girl, a waitress and a girl seated by the Seine.

Crowd Leaves

An audience estimated at about 2500 to 3000 braved medium downpours at the start of the evening to crowd the grandstands on the Millrace banks. But a heavy deluge near the end of the float parade drove most of the crowd, already draped with soaked blankets and programs, from the stands.

Queen Sue and her court stuck through the unscheduled weather along with Hoagy Carmichael, the honored guest of the Fete. But the rain just refused to honor the celebrities.

The Week court came down the "Race on its 'Stardust' float without benefit of umbrellas. And Carmichael stepped out into the rain for a brief greeting at the start of the Fete, then sang a few numbers while the judges were conferring.

THE PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA, under the direction of Eugene Ormandy will perform here at 2 p.m. Sunday in McArthur Court. University of Oregon students will be admitted free. Tickets for adult visitors are $2; students through high school age $1. Tickets are available at the Student Union and Mac court box office.