

CALIFORNIA'S SPEEDY Leamon King (left) nears finish of the second of his two victories in the Pacific Coast Conference meet Saturday. King was timed in 21.5 for this 220-yard dash and 9.6 for the 100-yard dash, which he ran earlier. Oregon sprinter Steve Anderson finishes second a scant tenth of a second behind the Bear flash. Anderson wound up with 10 points for the Webfoot cause with a second in the 220 and thirds in the 100 and low hurdles.

OVER THE BAR at 15' 3/8" goes USC pole vaulter Ron Morris breaking the old meet and field records. Morris was one of seven Trojans to parade to the victory stand in their 67-point victory in the PCC meet Saturday. Oregon's Jack Burg and Sam Whitney finished second in the event with 14'4" vaults to clinch second place for the Webfoots in the meet.

TERRY TOBACCO, Washington Husky ace, strains near the finish line of the quarter mile race, which he won. The only Northern Division victor not only bettered his best time for the event, but cracked the Hayward Field record as well with his 46.9 clocking.

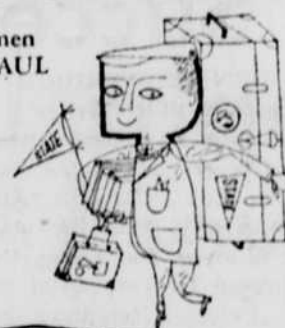

DISQUALIFIED MILER, UCLA's Bob Seaman, crosses the finish line in a near-dead heat with Southern Cal's Sid Wing. The favored Uclan ran into Wing in the stretch run, costing him a place in the race and UCLA a second place in the meet. Oregon's Jim Grelle (right) finished third, second after the disqualification. Wing was timed in 4:08.7, while Grelle crossed the line in 4:09.4, best of his career. (Photos by Rich Scott).
