

CLOSER TO SOURCE — This kid who apparently is using his head climbs onto back and head of a relative to get closer to handouts from sightseers at Cologne, Germany, zoo.

BOB HOPE helps Swedish actress Anita Ekberg try on bracelet, ear rings and tiara she wore at the Paris world premiere of the film "St. Joan." Hope and Miss Ekberg are making a movie in the French capital.

ON SMALL SCALE — Martin Zahl produces tone on six-inch violin he made in West Berlin. Zahl, a former watchmaker, has made other tiny instruments which are clearly audible.

ARMY SPECIALIST 3/e WILLIAM S. GIRAED, Ottawa-La-Salle, Ill., is the center of a jurisdictional dispute between U.S. military forces and Japanese civil authorities. Girard is being held in connection with the death of a Japanese woman on a U.S. Army firing range. The matter hinges on whether Girard was "on duty" at the time of the fatality. The woman was hunting scrap metal on the firing range. (AP Wirephoto).

STATE POLICE and volunteer rescue workers carry the body of a young Wave from the wreckage of a light plane which crashed near Sandy Level, Va., recently. Police identified the woman as Mary Moss, a Navy Wave, of Washington. Rescuers found the pilot of the craft (background), 2nd Lt. W. M. Hemmersmeir, of St. Louis, Mo., sitting shocked and seriously injured in shallow water along the river's edge. Hemmersmeir and Miss Moss, reportedly were en route to Miami, Fla., when the plane ran out of fuel and crashed. (AP Wirephoto).

CURVESOME MARIE McDONALD is pictured as she launched her first night club act in Reno, Nevada, with songs and a display of what she called "elegant sex." Her flesh-colored gown, sheer as a nylon stocking, was studded with beads. Shown with her in her arranger, Hal Borne.

A REFUELING RENDEZVOUS in the Mediterranean features Navy tanker Caloosahatchee, center foreground; cruiser Salem, left; and aircraft carrier Lake Champlain, parts of the Sixth Fleet in the area. In the background are two destroyers and the super-carrier Forrestal.