

Hunters, Deer Both Scarce

Observers in the heart of Oregon's deer country are calling this fall's season the quietest since World War Two, with an estimated 50 to 60 per cent fall-off in nimrod attendance noticed in Central and Eastern Oregon.

Most of the big decrease in venison-hunters thus far can be attributed to Gov. Holmes sudden decree last Thursday, opening the season, after he had postponed things until Oct. 5 two days before because of imminent fire danger. Most sportsmen were caught flat-footed by this announcement, but business should pick up by this Wednesday and reach a peak by Saturday.

Loop Bowling Slated To Open Wednesday

Fall term League bowling is slated to move off next week, according to the Student Union Recreation Department. Specifically, fraternity bowling will begin Tuesday, Oct. 8, with dorm keggers holding forth Oct. 9, and the All-Campus Mixed League starting Thursday, Oct. 10.

Participants should sign up today at the S.U. Recreation desk.
