

Contest Awards Go to Honoraries

Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary, and Alpha Delta Sigma, men's advertising honorary, have been jointly presented with the "Claire Drew Forbes Award," according to Norman Steen, Alpha Delta Sigma president.

Steen and Dorothy West, Gamma Alpha Chi president, accepted the honor, which included a plaque and $100 check from Lane Advertising and Sales Club President Chuck Shulda. He is also national sales manager for radio station KERG.

This award was originally intended to be given annually to the Gamma Alpha Chi chapter which achieves the best record in planning and executing Advertising Recognition Week in the nation. The two honoraries co-sponsored Oregon's Advertising Recognition Week last spring.

This is the second year the local group has won the contest.

Tri-Delts Return Delt Hospitality

Reversing an incident that was bestowed upon them last spring, the members of Delta Delta Delta sorority, accompanied by their housemother last Saturday morning, roused their neighbors, the men of Delta Tau Delta, from sound sleep. The Deltas were awakened by the lilting tones of the Tri-Delt girls outside their sleeping porch windows. After treating their guests to breakfast, the Tri-Delts continued their hospitality with a short skit.

Open House Set For Music Room

An open house will be held by the Student Union music committee Thursday from 7 to 10 p.m. for persons interested in classical music.

The open house will be in SU 202, and coffee will be served.

Health Service Giving Anti-flu Shots Today

Flu vaccine will be available to students at the Student Health Service, starting today and continuing through Friday.

Hours will be from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day.

Students under 21 must have permission from their parents or guardian to receive the vaccine. Anyone who is allergic to chicken or eggs should not receive the vaccine.

Student to Speak About Uprising

George Handlery, a Hungarian student who took part in the recent revolution in Hungary, will speak at the Koffee Klatch Friday evening at 7:30 in the Student Union Browsing Room, according to Lynn Yarnell, Student Union coffee hour chairman.

In his talk, Handlery will include his impressions of the history of Communist rule in Hungary and the recent 1956 fighting in which he took part. He will be assisted by another "freedom fighter," Steve Borossay, a student in the school of architecture.

Neuberger Sets Talk

Senator Richard Neuberger will address a journalism assembly Friday, at 3 p.m. His topic will be "Government and Public Opinion." The lecture will be open to the public.
