

Queen Contestants List Variety of Interests

LAURIE SCOTT
Alaskan in Finals

SUE MAUTZ
English Literature Major

MARY JO FOURIER
Member of Senior Six

(Pictures and activity sketches of three of the five Homecoming Queen candidates are pictured below. The winner will be selected Friday by student body vote at the Co-op and Student Union, and will be crowned at the bonfire.)

Laurie Scott, sponsored by Carson 5, is a junior from Ketchikan, Alaska.

Majoring in elementary education, she plans to teach in the intermediate grades after graduation.

A Kappa Alpha Theta, Miss Scott is presently a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, Co-op Board of Directors, and has been a member of the varsity rally squad for the last two years.

Campus activities include chairmanships of Duck Preview registration, World University Service auction, general secretary of All-Campus Sing, as well as committee work. She was a finalist for Little Captain.

Junior Candidate

Sue Mautz, a junior from Portland is sponsored by Delta Tau Delta, Delta Gamma, Phi Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Mu, and Young Hall.

Majoring in English literature, she came to Oregon because she knew the University well, and because her parents are alums of Oregon.

A member of Delta Gamma, Miss Mautz is mostly interested in cooking and sewing, water sports, and horse back riding.

Her activities included last year, chairman of the Homecoming hospitality committee, and finalist for Delta Tau Delta Queen. As a freshman she served as social chairman for Carson 5 and as co-chairman for a Frosh Sno-Ball committee. She is presently working on the Homecoming promotions committee.

Senior Hopeful

A senior from North Bend, Mary Jo Fourier is sponsored by Carson 4.

Majoring in general science, she is presently practice-teaching biology and chemistry at South Eugene high school. She chose the University because of its fine liberal arts school.

A Kappa Kappa Gamma, Miss Fourier's favorite pastimes include watching football, traveling, water sports, and photography.

Recently Miss Fourier was selected as one of the Senior Six in Phi Beta Kappa. This year she is vice president of Mortar Board and member of Pi Lambda Theta.

national education honorary. She has served in the Student Union for the past four years and is presently vice chairman of the Board.

During her freshman year she was vice president of Hendricks Hall and during her sophomore and junior year was a member of the sophomore and the senior cabinet of the YWCA and a member of Kwama and Phi Theta Upsilon.

Music to Sooth the Fleeced Alum

When you've taken all his money for his favorite charity—his school—don't leave the alum shaken and worn. Soothe his shattered nerves and empty wallet with the soothing voices of "The Four Lads Sing Frank Loesser." When he hears "The Oldest Established" and "More I Cannot Wish You" he may even begin to believe it was all his own idea. With this your victory is complete and you can go on to the next alum.

P. S. "Sit Down Your Rocking the Boat" from the same Special album—it's $2.98 this month only—makes good fleecing music.
