

The Little Woman, Too!

Players' Wives Slated For Rose Bowl Trip

Oregon's Rose Bowl football team will have plenty to keep it busy once reaching the Los Angeles area, besides rigorous preparations for the crucial New Year's Day clash with Big Ten champion Ohio State.

A royal round of sightseeing trips, excursions, tours and special events have been planned for the northern-based Webfoots during their stay in the sunnier (?) southland.

Wives Along

Not to be left out of the fun will be a certain select group—wives of the Oregon gridders. They'll be along for holiday helpings of moral support to their football-playing breadwinners.

More than a third of the team falls into this category, with 15 Webfoots claiming marital status.

Two of the team's four co-captains, center Norm Chapman and guard Harry Mondale, lead the way among the Duck marrieds as well.

Other married regulars include halfback Charlie Tourville, quarterback Jack Crabtree and tackle Jim Linden.

15 Married

Rounding out the wed Webfoots are tackles Darrel Aschbacher, Tom Keele, and Stewart White, centers Larry Hines and Earl Henderson, guards Jack Stone and Will Reeve, and halfbacks Len Read, Leroy Phelps and Denny Baker.

The wives will leave Eugene via a chartered plane December 29 at 10 a.m.

Included on the flight will be Governor Robert Holmes, Chancellor John Richards, University President O. Meredith Wilson and other dignitaries.

Ambassador Stay Set

The Ambassador Hotel will quarter both teams and the wives, with the spouses invited to accompany the official party on tours of Disneyland, movie studios and at the Rose Parade.

The wives will return the day following the game on a 2 p.m. United Air Lines flight back to Eugene.

Included among the wives are Mrs. Tourville, the former Erin McLachlan on the Oregon rally squad, and Mrs. Chapman, the former Jeanette McDonald, a one-time Homecoming queen at Oregon State College.

So if the Buckeyes are willing, and the Ducks, they'll have help waiting!

Federation Wishes UO Luck in Bowl

A resolution calling for "God's speed" and "best of luck" in the Rose Bowl for Oregon was unanimously approved last weekend by the Oregon Federation of College Leaders meeting at Lewis and Clark in Portland.

Introducing the resolution to the convention was OSC student body president Charlie Dunn.

Delegates convened for two days on the campus, discussing problems of leadership, activities, publications and student government.

Jack Berry of Pacific University was elected new president of the group. Next year's conference will be held at Southern Oregon College in Ashland.

S. W. Little Attends Architecture Meeting

Attending a meeting of the Capitol Planning Commission in Salem, Dec. 12, will be Sidney W. Little, Dean of the school of Architecture and Allied Arts.

This commission will discuss the design and development of the capitol mall and will have a general meeting in the morning session. The commission will work with the architects during the afternoon, Little said.
