Prize to Be Given In Dads Contest

A contest new to this year's Dads' Weekend has been announced by Lynn Yarnell and Stan Scrivener, co-chairmen. In order to encourage more fathers to attend, the chairmen have devised a plan by which the house or dormitory sending the highest percentage of letters home will win a prize.

Rules for the contest are: Clip the following letter from the Emerald and sign your name. Bring the letter to the Dads' Weekend office on the third floor of SU in an addressed stamped envelope. The letter will then be recorded to the house of the sender and the house with the most letters turned in will win. Deadline for this project is Friday.

Dear Dad,

We're having Dads' Weekend here at the University February 7 and 8. I sure wish you could come.

Friday night we're going to have a basketball game at Corvallis, an Amphibian water show, a play, and a University Theater open house. We could go to one or maybe more things.

If you can't come until Saturday, we can still go to the luncheon, the dads' dance or quiz show, the open houses, and a basketball game. There's a barbershop quartet contest, too.

Sunday we can have dinner at the house after church.

Write me of your plans as soon as you can so that I can make motel or hotel reservations.

See you February 7 and 8, P.S. We could go to the Winter Carnival Sunday if you want, too.

Under the Weather

Biding their time in infirmary beds, Wednesday are: Marilyn E. Jones, Muriel Cass, Richard Lieb, Stewart Tuft, Frederick Griffith, and Bill Vertrees.

Popenoe Reveals Marriage Clues

place to solve some of the couple's difficulties.

Popenoe commented that solving of difficulties can sometimes be quite simple. The term "re-education", in reference to parties in troubled marriages appeared several times, and illustrated his interest in marital counselling.

A large portion of the audience stayed after the lecture to ask questions and hear additional comments on the subject.

Humorous jokes and comments on marital situations accented the speaker's talk, although he seldom smiled at his own humor.

The speaker has written 12 books, and given speeches at 150 American colleges. He is married and has four sons.
