

IM Title Fight Opens Today

Eight Squads Vie For Championship

The first round of the 1958 Class A intramural basketball championships get underway this afternoon with three games on tap. Another game—a B playoff clash between Alpha Hall and Morton Hall—is also on tap.

Theta Chi, winners of the League Two title, will meet Sigma Nu in the opener at 3:50 on Court 40. The Theta Chi Five with a 4-1 record had to win a playoff game with Phi Kappa Psi to gain a playoff berth, while Sigma Nu rolled through its four league games in taking the League Three crown.

Emerald Board Picks Phi Delts For IM Crown

Phi Delta Theta enters the 1958 intramural Class A basketball tournament today as tight favorites to cart off the crown. The Emerald board of seven IM writers picked the Phi Delts to win the title in a close vote over second choice Alpha Hall and third pick Theta Chi.

The Emerald board gave four first place votes to Alpha, two to Theta Chi and only one to the Phi Delts, but five second place votes were enough to give the Phi Delts a seven point bulge over Alpha and a nine point lead over Theta Chi.

Points were given on an 8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis with a first place vote worth eight points and an eight place vote worth one point.

Following the top three were Sigma Nu, Legal Eagles, Smith Hall, Lambda Chi Alpha and Amazon Village in that order.

Intramural writers on the Emerald board were Larry Kurtz, Ranny Green, Al Hynding, John Weber, Jim Spangler, Dick Puusti and Al Winter.

The poll with first place votes in parenthesis:

Club	Pts.
1. Phi Delta Theta (1)	49
2. Alpha Hall (4)	42
3. Theta Chi (2)	40
4. Sigma Nu	33
5. Legal Eagles	30
6. Smith Hall	21
7. Lambda Chi Alpha	20
8. Amazon Village	17

Phi Delta Theta will meet Smith Hall on Court 40 and Alpha Hall will face the Legal Eagles on Court 43 in the other two tourney games on tap. Both games will start at 4:45.

The Phi Delts, Alphas and Eagles went through their seasons undefeated. Smith gained the tourney with a Wednesday playoff victory over Sweetzer Hall.

A fourth first round Class A match is slated for Monday when Lambda Chi Alpha meets Amazon Village. The Class B tourney will open next Tuesday with the final clashes in both divisions scheduled for a week from today.

In Thursday's only scheduled intramural action, Alpha's B squad rolled over Sheldon to get that crack at Morton today for the League Seven title. All three clubs had ended regular season play with a 2-1 record.
