Lenten Services Set By University Groups

By KAY JOSSELYN
Religious Notes Editor

University students will find many special Lenten services at local churches during this season in which they are invited to participate.

Luther house will have student services in the chapel at the Central Lutheran Church each Thursday morning during Lent. These are from 7:15 to 7:45 a.m.

Westminster students will hear Miss Marise Paschoud, a Lisle Fellowship representative from Switzerland, at their Sunday morning coffee hour. She will speak at Christian House that evening.

In the evening, after Vespers, Father Harold McKennett, of St. Mary's Parish and advisor to the Newman Club, will describe and answer questions about the Roman Catholic Church. All students are invited to this fireside discussion.

Rev. J. Stanley Barlow, the Presbyterian University pastor, will speak at the Sunday morning services of Central Presbyterian Church this week. His topic is "The Way of the Christian."

Westminster Dessert

The final dessert hour for the winter term at Westminster House will be next Thursday. This is in the series of talks on "What the Christian Hopes for in Society." A group discussion is planned for the final meeting at 6:15 p.m., Thursday.

Miss Amanda Chiang, student from Formosa, will speak at Christian House Sunday evening. She will comment on various basic aspects of the relationship between America, China, and Formosa. The Sunday morning classes continue under the leadership of Dr. Carroll Roberts and Dr. Paul Means.

Christian House students will go to Nelscott this afternoon for a joint retreat with the Oregon State College Christian Student Center. Recreation, study, planning, worship, and food are all on the schedule.

Talent scouts are busy looking for talent to appear in the annual "Cellar Cafe" to be presented by Christian House students. The date for this occasion is March 7, at the First Christian Church.

Evensong Services Set

The senior choir of St. Mary's Episcopal Church is initiating a series of Lenten Evensong services each Sunday at 4 p.m. This Sunday, the choir, under the direction of Milton Dieterich, a staff member of the music department, will present "The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ." The work is a cantata by Heinrich Schultz.

The passion narrative is taken from the St. John. Rev. Whiteside will narrate, and Mrs. Laura Spray will act as organist.

The series of Choral Evensongs will continue next Sunday with music by the St. Thomas Episcopal choir under the direction of Jack Donovan, and with a short meditation by Chaplain Edgar M. Tainton, Jr., vicar of St. Thomas.

Attorney New State Supreme Court Justice

SALEM, Ore., (AP) — Gov. Robert Holmes Thursday appointed Gordon Sloan, a 46-year-old Astoria attorney, to the Oregon Supreme Court.

Sloan will replace Justice Randall Kester, whose resignation will become effective March 1. Kester will become a counsel for the Union Pacific Railroad.

Holmes said he has known Sloan 15 years. Both are Democrats.

Candidacy Announced

Salem attorney Jason Lee announced his candidacy for the same court position earlier. In Eugene Thursday night Lee said "My decision to be a candidate has not been altered by my appointment."

Sloan has practiced law in Astoria since 1940. Prior to that he served three years as an assistant United States attorney in Kansas.

Three times he has been a circuit judge pro tem in Multnomah County. He also was a member of the board of governors of the state bar association and was a member of the state bar examiners in 1953 and 1954.

In 1956 Sloan was named chairman of the Inter-American Tuna Commission, on which he has served since 1950.

Name Changed By Telephone

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Lora Cutrer now has a new name and a $12 telephone bill.

She is now Mrs. George R. Blakeman. The $12 is what it cost for her long-distance marriage to the 31-year-old Navy machinist based at Adak, Alaska.

The 23-year-old Gulfport, Miss., bride was married in a proxy ceremony Wednesday by city clerk Byrd Sims.

The 15-minute ceremony went off beautifully after an earlier attempt Tuesday night had failed because of bad circuits to Alaska.

The pretty, brown-haired bride came to Pensacola for the ceremony because Mississippi does not recognize proxy weddings.
