Religious Groups Set Talent Show, Dance

By KAY JOSSELYN
Religious Notes Editor

Christian House tonight presents "Stellar-Cellar Cafe," its annual talent show which is billed as a show "out of this world."

Showings will be at both 7:30 and 9 in the basement of Eugene First Christian Church. All students are invited to attend.

Doris Dahlgren is general chairman of the event. Harley Cook will be Master of Ceremonies.

Sunday, the Christian House group will continue their two study groups in the morning.

At 5:30 p.m. Dorothy Parker, from Portland, will show slides on South American mission stations, and will speak on work there.

These were taken on her recent mission tour.

Episcopalian students are invited to the Communion Service which is held each Wednesday morning. The service is in Gerlinger at 7 a.m. Breakfast is served.

Wesley Semi-formal

Tonight at Wesley light-hearted fun is the order of the day. A semi-formal dance, open to all University students will take place. The Ed La Franchi Quartette will be providing the music.

Tickets may be purchased at the Student Union desk, or at Wesley Foundation.

Wesley Director Receives Award

Reverend Kenneth Peterson has been awarded a Danforth Campus Christian Worker Grant for the year 1958-59. He is director of the Wesley Foundation, University Methodist Student Center, and has been serving in this capacity for six years.

These grants have been established to encourage those responsible for extra-classroom religious life on the campus to strengthen their leadership by means of further graduate study.

They are granted interdenominationally throughout the United States. Reverend Peterson plans to begin work this June on his Doctorate of Theology degree at the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Cal.

REVEREND KEN PETERSON
Awarded Grant

Stan Murray was recently re-elected president of Wesley students. Pat Cleveland is the first vice-president, Marilyn Macy second vice-president. Taking up duties as secretary will be Barbara Carleton, and as treasurer, Jerry Rempel.

Westminster House will meet Sunday morning for their coffee hour discussion and study of the New Testament. This group is led by Rev. Stan Barlow, Presbyterian University pastor.

Informal singing will precede Vespers at 6. Students will then discuss and plan for the program for spring term. All Presbyterian students are invited to these meetings.

Debate Titles Being Defended

University teams are competing this weekend at Linfield College to defend two sweepstakes titles.

Last year the University won first place in the general sweepstakes, another first in junior sweepstakes, and second in senior sweepstakes.

The tournament, which started Thursday, will end Saturday.

Entered in this year's events are Judith Hawley and Jean Guske, junior women's debate; Paul Ward and Louis Cockermham, senior men's debate; and William Austin and Timothy Keating, Jennifer Bain and Leland Smith, junior men's debate.

Sharon Burdett, Pat Barclay, Linda Gaugler, Clyde Genz and Doreen Morasch are participating in individual events.

End-of-Term Program Set Friday by KWAX

A special program will be heard Friday from 8:30 to 11 p.m. over KWAX. Friday is the last broadcast day of winter term for the station, and the program will give everyone on the staff a chance to be heard on the air.

Bob and Ray interviews, campus exposes and music will be featured. M.C.'s of the show will be Dick Bond and Bob MacNab.

Campus Briefs

• The new YWCA House Council will meet Monday at noon in Gerlinger. All new house representatives are to attend.

• All committee members and committee heads for the Easter Sunrise Service are requested to meet at 2 p.m. Sunday at Wesley Foundation. It is important that everyone be there according to Jack Kingsbury, general chairman for the event.
