Honorary Seeks Former Scouts Amid UO Men

A census of all University men will be conducted during spring term registration by the pledges of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity which is reforming on campus. This census will be used to determine the percentage of former Boys Scout now enrolled at Oregon.

Officers of the club estimate that 40 per cent of the men now in school have been in the Scouting movement at one time. All men who are sincerely interested in service to the University will be chosen for pledgeship from this census.

An open meeting will be held during the first week of spring term to explain the functions of APO to those men interested in the organization.

Officers elected at the last APO open meeting are Don Gunther, president; James Boyd, vice-president; Garth McGuire, projects chairman; Don Ashton, treasurer; John Russell, recording secretary; Pat Sandstrom, corresponding secretary; Greg Kesterson, historian-alumni secretary; and Tom Reanier, sergeant-at-arms. These new officers will serve until the end of spring term.
