With this special 16-page edition, The Emerald completes winter term publication. Next edition of The Emerald will appear April 1.

Pan-Hell Tabs New Officers

The new and old Panhellenic executive councils held a joint meeting at Mrs. Golda Wickham's home Wednesday.

The new Panhellenic officers are: president, Joan Long; vice president, Margaret Socolofsky; second vice president, Sue Barrington who is also Junior Panhellenic representative; treasurer, Sharon Burdett; secretary, Bunny Brissendon; public relations, Joan Bauerly; scholarship, Carol Wolleson; publicity, Penny Raught; standards, Marilyn Poston; members-at-large, Sharon Rafferty, Andrea Rees, and Sharon Meyer.

The offices of president and vice president are held by girls from a different house each year. The houses rotate on the basis of the year their chapter was founded at the University. The positions of secretary and treasurer are filled by the house which will hold the presidency and vice-presidency the next year, the secretary becoming president and the treasurer becoming vice president.

Panhellenic will hold a regular meeting Thursday night at 6:30 at Alpha Chi Omega.

Kappas Kop Emerald Kup

Kappa Kappa Gamma topped women's living groups with $92 in Emerald subscription sales to win the circulation trophy, Friday.

Alpha Omicron Pi was second with $30, followed by Carson 5, $16; Tri-Delta, $12; and Susan Campbell Hall, $4.

The permanent trophy, was awarded on an equal-chance basis, regardless of the size of the living organization. The Kappas won the trophy for having the most subscriptions, per person affiliated.

Each girl in the Kappa house sold one subscription for the $92 total. "A lot of parents are going to know what's happening on the University campus," president Lynne Smith said.

Emerald Editor, Allen Johnson made the trophy presentation Friday night at dinner.

The subscription sales contest was initiated to build the circulation of The Emerald and to give women's living groups a chance to compete for the trophy offered, said Gary Capps, business manager.

Workers Named For Mystie Sale

Subchairmen for the annual Phi Theta Upsilon Mystie Sale have been announced by co-chairmen Nina Sackett and Barbara Buckhorn.

Named for the posts were Judy Richards and Betsy Wood, publicity and promotions; Erika Schmoll, decorations; Margaret Reedy, Meredith Mundorff and Teddy Christie, booths and house sale; Marlis de Groote and Pam Lindholm, distributions; Terry Kuhn, arrangements; Monita Parrish, contacts and personell; and Kay Wald, general secretary.

The sale, which feature a surprise product, will be held during spring term. Funds from the sale of Mysties are for Phi Theta scholarship funds.

Somebody Goofed

WENATCHEE (AP)—A car stopped here today. So did one behind. Then came a truck.

It didn't. On the tailgate of the truck at the rear of the three-vehicle jam-up, was the sign:

"Free brake adjustment."
