

Theta Sigs honor Journalism women

Pat Treece and Mary Jo Stewart, both journalism pre-majors, were recently honored as the outstanding sophomore and freshman women in journalism by Theta Sigma Phi, national professional honorary for women in journalism.

The awards were presented at last week's Matrix Table, sponsored annually by the honorary.

Featured at the banquet was the tapping of new Theta Sig members. They are Barbara Stepper, Joann Shore, Kathy Cook, Judy Anderson, Miss Treece, Gail Mottler and Barbara Perron.

Mrs. Thomas Wright, former editor of the Emerald and a University graduate, was honored as the 1958 Woman of Achievement for her civic and newspaper activities.

Featured speaker was Helmut Meyer-Dietrich, editor of the Berliner Morgenpost, who was completing a series of campus speaking engagements.

Ann Connell of the Register-Guard was also tapped for membership in the honorary, which includes both campus and career women in its membership.

Presiding at the banquet was Cornelia Fogle, senior in journalism, and president of the campus group.

Gallery exhibits Mikami paintings

A Japanese brush painting exhibit by Takahiko Mikami will be held in the Student Union art gallery, May 3 to 18.

Since 1953 Mr. Mikami has been executive director of the International Education Center, Tokyo. Much of his energy has gone into the establishment and financing of the Center and an American Academy of Japanese Fine Arts in the United States.

Mr. Mikami has exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum in Tokyo, the Tokyo-do Gallery, the Labor Department Exhibition, where he won the Japanese Government Labor Office's prize, the Zokeibunka Exhibition winning the governor's prize in Japan, and a one-man show at Carnegie Endowment International Center in New York City.

He is Chairman of the Art Society of Meiji University, and has taught oil and Japanese painting at the International Education Center in Tokyo. Mikami is presently giving instructional television programs of Japanese brush painting on more than 26 educational T.V. stations all over the U.S. He has established and is the director of the Japanese Art Center in San Francisco. His studio is in San Francisco, California.
