Jefferson keeps top position in prep poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jefferson, after a 41-0 drubbing of Madison, continued this week to be the unanimous selection of sportswriters and broadcasters voting in the Associated Press poll as Oregon's No. 1 high school football team.

Medford, the top southern Oregon power, flattened Klamath Falls, 53-0, and easily retained second place in the poll.

Roseburg moved from eighth to number three spot after conquering North Bend, fourth last week, 27-20. North Bend fell to seventh place.

North Salem drubbed Bend, 28-0, for its fifth victory in six games to move into number four position.

Astoria was hard pressed to get by David Douglas of Portland, 6-0, and stay in fifth place.

Marshfield moved from seventh to sixth after whipping Springfield, 26-21.

Behind North Bend, in eighth position, was Grants Pass, which returned to the victory column with a 33-7 win over Ashland.

Baker, which appears to be the strongest Eastern Oregon team, marched to its sixth victory without a loss over Hermiston, 33-12. That moved Baker into the top 10, in ninth position.

McMinnville rounds out the select group, in 10th spot. The Grizzlies defeated West Linn, ninth last week, 18-16.

Groups to meet

Intramural managers of teams that have won or tied for first in their leagues will meet this afternoon at 2:00 in the intramural office for tournament drawings.

California's Golden Bears took over the Pacific Coast Conference top spot this past weekend by taking a narrow 14-12 win over the Trojans of USC.

Cal's top quarterback Joe Kapp paced his team to an early 14-0 lead over the men of Troy, then the Don Clark coached Trojans rallied for 12 points. USC's inability to hang onto the ball resulted in five fumbles which considerably aided the California cause.

WSC kept its Rose Bowl hopes alive by moving into second place in conference standings by virtue of a 6-0 win over previously undefeated Oregon. The Cougars used a potent running and passing attack and a strong defense to stymie Oregon's bid to capture the conference crown.

Injured WSC quarterback Bob

Newman saw enough action against the favored Webfoots to lead his team down the field and then plunge over for the score from the one-foot line late in the second quarter.

Oregon State also kept its bowl hopes alive by coming from behind to score a 20-6 win over Idaho. The Beavers regained some of their 1957 form behind the strong running of Jim Stinnette. OSC lost a 28-0 game to Wyoming the week before and appeared to be headed for another loss, when Tommy Prothro's charges suddenly came alive to down the Vandals.

The win puts the Corvallis lads in a tie with Oregon for third place in the standings and half a game behind the league-leading Bears.

UCLA came alive Saturday to trounce the Washington Huskies in a 20-0 televised contest. The game was the fifth of the campaign for the Bruins and it ended the college grid careers of several penalized Bruin seniors. The Los Angeles squad now holds a 1-1 conference record.

Stanford moved outside conference competition to meet a strong Air Force Academy team and lost a 16-0 decision.

At the present time California is the leading contender for the

New Year's Day trip to Pasadena. However, both OSC and WSC with only one loss in conference play have to be considered in the picture.

Cal has been surprising so far this season as coach Pete Elliott has brought the once-powerful Bears, who only won one game in 1957, back into the picture.

In games slated for this weekend the Oregon-California game at Berkeley is the featured battle. The Bears need a victory over the Ducks to stay in first place, while the Webfoots would like to win in order to stay in the race for the number one spot.

Other games scheduled are USC vs. WSC at Spokane, Washington vs. OSC at Portland, and Stanford vs. UCLA at Los Angeles.
