Theosophy speaker due

The Theosophical Society has scheduled its international lecturers, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Layton, to speak in Eugene tonight and Friday.

The lecturers will speak tonight at 8 in the home of Margaret Harman, 1471 Patterson. A public lecture will be given Friday at 8 p.m. on "Divine Plan in a Chaotic World" at the Eugene Hotel.

The society is an international organization which works for the ideal of brotherhood and is comprised of students of religion, philosophy and science.

Layton was born in England and has traveled widely. Among his travels, he spent 13 years in India. "There is no creed in the Theosophical Society," said Layton.

Mrs. Layton attended Stanford University and has been working with problem children.
