

University faculty to address Oregon's AAUW convention

The 34th annual meeting of the Oregon state division of American Association of University Women will be held in Eugene Thursday through Saturday.

Chairmaned by Mrs. William C. Jones and Miss Nina Kitts, the convention will open Thursday afternoon at a regular session. Delegates attending the meeting will later be entertained at a tea at the home of Mrs. O. Meredith Wilson, wife of the president of the University.

The question: "Shall the United Nations recognize Red China?" will be discussed Thursday evening by a panel taking the role of Pacific area countries. The discussion will be held during the international relations dinner at Grace Lutheran Church.

'Economic pressures' topic
Assistant professor of economics Robert Campbell will speak to the group the same evening on 'The Impact of Economic Pressures in the Pacific Area.'

President Wilson and professor of physics Raymond T. Ellickson will address the delegates during the Friday noon luncheon. Wilson will discuss the topic, "Education for Women" while Ellickson will speak on "The Catholic Quality of Learning."

A special exhibit in the Museum of Oriental Art will feature work of AAUW members and will be shown Friday afternoon. Professor of art Wallace Baldinger is the juror for the exhibit and will also discuss the subject "Learning through Looking."

Vassar professor to speak
The Friday evening Centennial banquet in the King Cole room at the Eugene Hotel will feature Mabel Newcomer, former professor of economics at Vassar College. She will speak on "Taxes and Prosperity."

The final discussion will take place Saturday morning when Purveyor of Books at Reed College Richard Abel speaks on "New Coverage for Recognized Communication Materials."

Registration due for rush

Informal spring rush, which began Monday, will continue until May 10.

Open to freshmen and upperclassmen, this rush period finds the majority of houses open for rush. The names of these sororities may be obtained from the Dean of Women's office.

Panhellenic president Bunny Brissenden has stressed the importance of registering immediately with the Dean of Women. Deadline for registration has been set for April 27.

If a rushee is unable to attend a rush date after accepting, it is necessary to inform either the Dean of Women's office or the Panhellenic office in the Student Union.

Any women with questions concerning the rush period are asked to call or visit the Panhellenic office which will be open Monday through Friday from 2 to 5 p.m. during rush.

Unless otherwise notified, dress for the rush dates will be campus clothes.

Grant deadline set for Friday

The deadline for the return of applications for the Hazel Schwering scholarship has been set for Friday at 5 p.m.

The letter of application should be turned in to the Dean of Women's office. The scholarship offered this year is for $300.

Weekend Yachats retreat said 'successful' by prexy

Panhellenic held a spring term retreat Friday and Saturday in Yachats which Panhell president Bunny Brissenden considered "quite successful."

Miss Brissenden explained that the group discussions of the two days were centered around four basic topics: rush procedure, Panhellenic's role in political issues on campus, methods to increase interest in cultural events, and aims and purposes of Panhellenic.

The proposals resulting from the discussions will be "worked on and extended" during the next year, according to Miss Brissenden. She also expressed her hope that the women attending the retreat would "pass on to their houses decisions reached."

Present at the retreat were the old and new members of Panhellenic council; Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, Dean of Women; Mrs. Thaxter Reed, president of City Panhellenic and the president and rush chairman from each of the sixteen sororities.
