

Rand Potts will head Portland alum group

Rand Potts was recently elected president of the University of Oregon Alumni Association in the Portland area. Others elected were D. Donald Lonie Jr., Cork Mobley and Mrs. Robert Koch.

Social plans of the organization for the coming year include post-game gatherings and a University sponsored institute to be held in the spring. One of the professional schools will conduct a series of seminars for Portland businessmen during the institute.

DEAN OF WOMEN Golda P. Wickham accepts a cup of tea from Amanda Chang at the dean's tea held in Gerlinger Thursday afternoon. The tea provided Mrs. Wickham and her staff with an opportunity to meet the freshmen women.

Students win awards

A total of 41 Oregon students have won county and legislative district scholarships to attend the University.

The awards, covering most tuition and fee charges, were provided under a new law, Senate Bill 133, which provides for one scholarship per county and one per legislative district. They are renewable for a maximum of four years without further application as long as the recipient remains academically eligible.

For state schools

A total of 126 scholarships were awarded to students enrolled in state system schools.

University students holding the awards are: Ellen West, Sherwood; Dorothy Cordill, Molalla; Rahles Blissett, Gearhart; Judith Mason, Astoria; Carl Sandstrom, Bandon; Vivian Paul, Brookings-Harbor; Delberta Ashford, Reedsport; Judith Costelloe, Winston, and Nancy Elder, Arlington.

Others are Roger D. Reason, Burns; Arne Mortenson, Hood River; Sandy Hess, Medford; Catherine Piedmont, Madras; Wendell T. Beyer and Cameron D. Hinman, Klamath Falls; Patricia Perlich, Leonard M. Ball, Steven Barsby, Donald Dugger, William D. Gard and Judith Ann Hendershott, Eugene.

Others listed

More winners are Alice Dean, Neotsu; Sally Rapacz, Oceanlake; Sharon Johnson, Scio; Carol E. Toedter, Ontario; Diana Boyd and Jacqueline LaDue, Salem; Caroline Kleczynski, Aurora; Gayle Osburn, Elgin; Maxine Sicaud, Boardman, and John Stevens, Helix.

Completing the list are Jeanette L. Butts, Richard L. Haines,

John Burnham, Sandra L. Macarus and Barbara Runge, Portland; Nancy Jane Kelley and James A. Barnard, Dallas; John C. Heldstab, The Dalles; Judith Ann Babich, Hillsboro and June Rehwalt, Sherwood.
