

Meeting of MUN set for Thursday

A meeting of students interested in the MUN program has been scheduled for Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in 107 Commonwealth. Members of the University's 1959 delegation will explain the organization's purpose and plans for the 1960 conference at Berkeley, California in April.

The University will host the College Model United Nations conference in 1961. Oregon was picked for the meeting at the MUN conference in Los Angeles last spring.

Previously this group has been conducted as a class at the University, but it will now function as a student-sponsored activity. A permanent office will be located in the SU.

The 1960 conference will be the eleventh session of Western British Columbia, Alaskan and Hawaiian colleges.

About 700 college students and advisors attend the annual conference, with each delegation representing an assigned country in the U.N.

Further information on the meeting Thursday may be obtained by contacting Judy Hawley or Jean Guske.

Unander invited as KWAX guest

Young Republicans and Young Democrats will combine forces on a panel to question State Treasurer Sig Unander, who will appear as guest for "On the Spot" Thursday at 9:30 p.m. over station KWAX.

Unander will answer questions put to him by Dan March and John Moore of the Democrats, and Fred Heard and Tom Easton of the Republicans. He has no previous knowledge of the questions.

Mike Kramer will be moderator. The program is produced and directed by Zan Silverman. The show will be broadcast over a frequency of 91.1 MCS FM.

Walt Grebe will report on allocation of funds to charities included in the campus chest drive to be held this term.

General Chairman Scott Wood will discuss plans for World Affairs Week November 9-14, and will give a financial report.

The Senate also will interview five persons seeking junior class representative post.

Greater Oregon chairman John Packham's report to the Senate probably will include discussion of revival of Duck Preview, Wengert said.

Civil service exams open to students

College juniors, seniors and graduates and equivalent experienced persons interested in Federal Civil Service careers may now apply to the 1960 Federal Service Entrance Examination, the United States Civil Service Commission announced Tuesday.

Those passing the examinations may begin work in one of 60 different occupational fields, with starting salaries ranging from $4,040 to $4,980 a year, depending on qualifications of the candidate.

The jobs to be filled from the FSEE are in various Federal agencies and are located in Washington, D.C., and throughout the United States. Management Internships will also be filled from this examination with starting salaries of $4,980 and $5,985 a year.

Dates for this year's examinations have been scheduled for November 14, January 9, February 13, April 9 and May 14.

Acceptance of applications for Management Internships will be closed January 28. Closing date for all other positions is April 28, 1960.

Interested persons may obtain further information about the test and how to apply from Civil Service Announcement No. 206 available at college placement offices, post offices or from the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Queen interviews

(Continued from page 1) queen selection chairman, outlined the method of judging the contestants. There were six judges and each girl was allowed a maximum of five minutes with each judge. Judging, according to Palauni, was based on the girls "royal qualities," which included poise, conversation, manners and beauty.

Palauni stressed that activities were not considered in judging the girls, but that their decisions were "divorced from campus influence."

Fellowship offered in diplomatic service

The Scottish Rite Foundation of Oregon is offering a $1800 Fellowship for 1960-61 for study at George Washington University, Washington, D.C. The Fellowship is planned to prepare a candidate for the diplomatic service and is open to Oregon citizens holding a baccalaureate degree.

Competition is open to both men and women.

A doctor was digging a well in his backyard and fell into it and died. The townspeople had no sympathy and said he should have tended to the sick and left the well alone. You'll be doing well if you go to the D.Q. store, 13th and Hilyard.

Festival of Fine Arts Slated for Portland

The second annual Festival of Fine Arts will be held in Portland from Oct. 23 to Nov. 6. Pete Seeger, American folk singer, will be featured. A stage adaptation of Arthur Koestler's "Darkness at Noon" will also be presented.

Others appearing at the festival will be Dr. Edwin Moseley and Robert Duncan. Moseley, a literary critic, will lecture on "Lost and Hollow, Beat and Angry, the Significant Gestures of Two Generations." Duncan, a San Francisco poet, will read from his works and will conduct a talk on "The Meaning of Form in Poetry."

Portland State College's Columbia String Quartet will present a concert during the festival. A carnival of international films will also highlight the affair.

Want Something for FREE?

In the lower left hand corner of this page is the first piece of a three piece puzzle. Tomorrow's D.Q. ad will have the second part and Friday's the last. Assemble all three pieces Friday p.m., take them to your D.Q. store at 13th and Hilyard. The first 10 people showing up Friday with the completed picture may have any ice cream goodies they want for free!

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

A jug of Wine,
A loaf of Bread and Winston's
Filter-Blend!

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should"?

We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking.

Winston is designed to taste good.

Or, as Omar puts it:

The Moving Lighter lights;
and having lit,
Flicks off. Then you draw on IT,
And bit by bit smoking pleasure mounts;
With Filter-Blend up front,
Winston's got what counts!
