

World News In Brief

(Continued from page 1)

phy. Murphy will be the State Department's top representative on the trip.

Churchill 85 today

LONDON (UPI)—Sir Winston Churchill gave in to his wife and agreed to a family party today. It will be his 85th birthday. The former British prime minister had wanted to spend his birthday in the south of France, where he loves to paint leisurely. Just over a week ago Churchill was confined to his bed with chest trouble. But his secretary says he is completely recovered.

Holman funeral slated

PORTLAND (AP)—The funeral for former U.S. Sen. Rufus C. Holman of Oregon was scheduled here Wednesday.

Holman served in the Senate from 1938-1944. He was known as an isolationist and fought New Deal domestic policies of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Reds claim victory

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China claims Communist-led rebels have scored new successes against government troops in Laos. The Red Chinese news agency, monitored in Tokyo, alleges the rebels killed 28 soldiers and wounded 19 others in clashes during late October and early November. It based the story on reports published by a rebel newspaper.

Mikoyan returns

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet first deputy premier, Anastas Mikoyan, has returned to Moscow from a 10-day visit to Mexico. Mikoyan told a crowd at the Mos-

Holiday baskets

(Continued from page 1)

dren and then plan their Christmas gifts accordingly, she said.

Miss Scott explained that the Salvation Army Clearing House makes its list from the reports of the county's relief agencies. The names are then given to charitable organizations. This prevents duplication, she said.

The AWS takes this list and distributes the names to interested living organizations.

Job IOC's

Business administration majors will be interviewed Wednesday, Dec. 2, by Burroughs Corp., for jobs on the West Coast.

Longview Fibre Co. will interview persons Dec. 2 for jobs in the Pacific Northwest. Business administration industrial sales trainees who are December graduates or alumni are desired.

Personal Products Corp. will interview business-administration management trainees Dec. 2, for West Coast jobs.

CO-ED WINS CONTEST

Two motion picture producers were arguing over the prize of a recent contest. The prize, who was a curvaceous co-ed, listened to the two men argue as they exclaimed, "I won her!" "No I won her!" "I won her!" "No I won her!" they retorted. These were the original "won-her" brothers who are now engaged in the Dairy Queen industry in Deek-you, Iowa. If you want to be argued over eat non-fat Dairy Queens — made from a special secret formula. (13th and Hilliard, of course).

cow airport that he brings them ardent feelings of friendship from the people of Mexico. The Russian official made the trip to open the Soviet exhibition in Mexico City.

Moon shot possible

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A top-ranking government space official has hinted that the U.S. may be considering another moon shot. Richard Horner, associate director of the nation's Civilian Space Agency, said on a TV program (ABC College News Conference) that his agency now has no Atlas rockets assigned for another moon-orbiting attempt, but he added that his group may revise its production schedule.

Naval interviews set Dec. 2, 3, 4

United States Navy personnel will present information concerning commissions in the U.S. Naval Reserve at the University, Dec. 2, 3 and 4, in the commuters' room of the SU.

Questions will be answered on the Naval Aviation Cadet (NAC), Aviation Officer Candidate (AOC) and the Officer Candidate School (OCS) programs. Interviews will be held between 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. each day. Qualification tests can also be taken.

The NAC program is open to men with at least two years of college and between the ages of 18 and 24. AOC is for college graduates between 19 and 25. Seniors within nine months of graduation may apply for the OCS program, if they are between the ages of 19 and 27.

Cadets are commissioned Ensign after 18 months aviation training at Pensacola, Florida, and college graduates receive their commission after four months of pre-flight training.

Both aviation cadet and officer candidates receive their wings after 18 months flight training, then serve 42 months with the Fleet's sea-air team.

Further information about the Navy personnel visit may be obtained from Navy Recruiter, Jim Davis, at the Navy Recruiting Station in Eugene.

AFROTC names top sharpshooters

The top five men for the University's Air Force ROTC rifle team are James Needham, Johnathon Shew, Thomas Prock, Henry Desler, and Melvin Nice. The men are selected on the number of points they have scored.

Col. Horace Neely presented citation

Col. Horace D. Neely, professor of air science and tactics at the University, was presented a citation Nov. 23, by Col. B. A. Strozier, AFROTC Area Commandant. Neely, who is also head of the AFROTC program here, was cited for his forceful leadership and outstanding service as assistant deputy chief of staff, Intelligence Headquarters, United States Air Force in Europe.

Colonel Neely, a graduate of the University, also holds the Commendation Medal and the Legion of Merit. His citation accompanied the award of the Oak Leaf Cluster to the Legion of Merit. Neely served with the Fifth Air Force in the Pacific during the second World War.

Use Emerald Classified Ads—
Phone DI 2-1411, Ext. 618

ZELL BROS

MORRISON AT PARK AVENUE
PORTLAND 5, OREGON

Matchmates

for Matrimony...

BLOSSOM TIME*

Pairs from Zell's

Beautiful Blossom Time "look-alikes" for your engagement and wedding!

The design in one duplicates that in the other to double the effectiveness and beauty of each — to strike a note of complete harmony. Here we show but a few of our matched Blossom Time sets in our made-for-each other collection. If you wish, you may purchase the engagement ring alone, and later add the matched wedding band. Prices include both rings.

You are welcome to divide your payments equally over 10 months without interest or carrying charge.

*TM Registered U. S. Patent Office
All Prices Include Tax

