

Index
Editorials	2
Sports	4, 5
Women's News	7

Weather
Partial clearing periods, chance of late afternoon showers. Warmer.

World News IN BRIEF

Air Force to try again

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—Informed sources told United Press International that the Air Force will make a second try later this month to send another "Spy-in-the-Sky" satellite into orbit.

The first Midas satellite shot failed shortly after launching from Cape Canaveral. Last Friday's test was aimed for a 300-mile-high orbit.

Challenge delayed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Officials in Washington say a plan to challenge Russia's altitude ceilings on flights into Berlin has been delayed at the request of Defense Department chiefs.

The Pentagon chiefs reportedly want to review the plan. Officials say President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Herter will probably have to make a final ruling when they return to Washington next week.

Manual supported

THE PENTAGON (UPI)—The Air Force says it has received hundreds of letters backing up its training manual linking Communism to churches.

It says 92 per cent of some 1000 letters support statements in the manual.

Some letters, the Air Force says, protested withdrawal of the booklet.

Leighton Pool dedication set

Oregon's new Leighton swimming pool will be dedicated in ceremonies beginning at 2 p.m. Saturday. Dean Arthur Esslinger of the school of health, physical education and recreation, will preside at the ceremonies.

THE CEREMONIES are being held in conjunction with the Northern Division championships being held here through Saturday.

Chancellor J. R. Richards and Thomas Curreton, professor of physical education at the University of Illinois will also participate in the dedication which will take place at the pool.

Preliminary and final competition in ND swimming competition will be held at 10 a.m., 1 p.m., and 7:30 p.m. today.

CHAMPIONSHIP competition will be held at 8:30 a.m., 10 a.m., and immediately following the dedication ceremonies Saturday.

Student athletic cards are not good for admission to the Championships. Admission is $.25 for the preliminaries and $.50 for the finals.

No more Emeralds until March 11

Today's publication will be the final edition of the Emerald until next Friday, March 11. It is the Emerald's policy to print only one edition the week before Winter term finals.

Cureton to speak at dedication

Thomas Cureton, director of the Physical Fitness Research laboratory at the University of Illinois will be guest speaker at a Saturday luncheon honoring guests of the dedication ceremonies for the new Leighton Pool.

THE LUNCHEON is scheduled to begin at 11:30 a.m. and adequate time will be available to permit all those participating in the Northern Division swimming championships to attend.

Cureton will speak on "Scientific Investigations and Test Results Applied to Olympic Swimming." He is considered one of the foremost authorities in physical education on aquatic activities.

Cureton has been chairman of the National YMCA Aquatic Committee for the past 22 years, and has given leadership to four National Aquatic Conferences.

HE IS the author of many books on swimming and of over 90 articles on the sport. His writings have covered all phases of swimming.

Cureton has tested members of five U.S. Olympic swimming teams in analytical and diagnostic swimming tests; he has also tested members of the Australian, Canadian and Mexican Olympic teams.

He is a former member of the men's Olympic Swimming committee and presently is a member of the AAU Executive committee and is a member of the Men's National AAU Swimming committee.

Browsing lecture to feature slides

Walter L. Youngquist, professor of geology at the University, will illustrate his discussion "Frontiers Beneath Our Feet" with slides during the Wednesday evening Browsing Room lecture at 7:30 in the SU.

Youngquist, who has been at the University since 1957, formerly taught at the University of Idaho and the University of Kansas. He received his B.A. from Gustavus Adolphus College and his M.S. and Ph.D. from the University of Iowa.

The much-traveled Youngquist has made geological trips to the Baffin Islands in Alaska, Hudson Bay-Yukon Territory, across the Peruvian Andes, and a trip the length of the Amazon River. He has traveled in every state as well as Mexico, the West Indies, Latin America, and South America.

Youngquist was senior geologist and chief of the Special Studies Section for the International Petroleum Company of Peru, South America. At present, he is the consulting geologist for the Shell Oil Company, the Carter Oil Company, and the Humble Oil Company.

Youngquist is a member of Sigma Xi, the Geological Society of America, the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, the Geological Society of Stockholm in Sweden, the Geological Society of Yorkshire in England, the Paleontological Society, and the Society of Economic Paleontologists and Mineralogists.

CESARE VALLETTI

Tenor schedules Eugene concert

Cesare Valletti, lyric tenor star of the Metropolitan Opera and La Scala, Milan, will sing at McArthur Court on Wednesday, March 9, at 8 p.m.

CURRENTLY ON his sixth North American tour, Valletti is singing some of his most famous roles at the Metropolitan this season, including Don Ottavio in "Don Giovanni," Des Grieux in "Manon," and Alfredo in "La Traviata."

"Madame Butterfly," "Traviata," "Don Giovanni," and "The Barber of Seville," are among his most recent recordings for RCA Victor.

Soon to be released will be a Victor recording of Valletti's Town Hall recital last November.

Born in Rome, the tenor made his operatic debut in Bari in 1947, and, after four years of singing in Italian opera houses, London's Covent Garden, and as far afield as Spain, Mexico, and Egypt, made his debut at La Scala in 1951.

IN THE fall of 1953, he made his American debut with the San Francisco Opera, followed shortly thereafter by his debut at the Met.

A year later, his first Town Hall concert established him as one of the foremost vocal recitalists of the day, according to Louis Biancolli, New York World-Telegram and Sun critic.

Sociologist meet set for Saturday

Oregon sociologists will meet at the University Saturday for a professional fellowship and discussion. Main feature of the meet will be a luncheon at the University Faculty Club with a talk by Herbert Bisno with the University.

Bisno will discuss "The Implications of the National Social Work Education Curriculum Study for Curriculum Development in Sociology Departments."

A two-hour morning panel discussion, headed by Hans Plambeck from Oregon State, is scheduled. The topic will deal with "The Role of Sociology in Teacher Education and the Secondary School."

'King and I' opens tonight at UT theatre

Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical comedy "The King and I" opens tonight at the University Theatre, for a sold-out run of seven performances.

DIRECTED by Horace W. Robinson, "The King and I" features Vivian Tendollen as Anna; Bob Stankavich as the King; Howard Heseman as The Krahlahome; Gwen Char as Lady Thiang; Junette Barcello as Tup-tim, and Marc McGowan as Lun Tha.

Others in the 50-member cast are Ron Coulter, Louis Sutcliffe, Bryan Coverdell, Jeff Moir, Mark Lutz, Sue Orona, John Tysell, Barbara Mathers, Yuk Lin Waipa, Anne Myatt, Dee Curtis, Diana Trevor Minor, Gavin Tameris, Marjorie Morse, Peggy Wade, Else Barlow, Lei Uemura, Alice Knoles, Caroline Barney, and Jane Stevens.

Others include Marsha Edge, Cindy Puente, Elizabeth Wagstaff, Dean Taylor, Rose Thrush, Judy Davis, Patty Creamer, Carolyn Bartell, Maurena Noll, June Myers, Georgette Monroe, Ken Hastings, Palauni Tuasosopo, Orville Klump, and Maureen Sims.

CONDUCTING the orchestra will be John Hendrickson. Assistant director is Boyd Devin, and sets are designed by Dave Sherman.

Although the musical is presently sold out, the UT Boxoffice has announced that it will accept ticket orders and will notify persons if and when tickets are available. Orders are being taken for performances Saturday, March 5 (Matinee only), March 7, 8, 9, and 10.

Ticket orders may be placed at the UT Boxoffice, or by calling Ext. 441.

State News IN BRIEF

Evidence uncovered

EUGENE (AP)—Dist. Atty. William Frye said Thursday that investigators have uncovered evidence indicating arson in the quarter-million-dollar fire that destroyed the Hoffman Hotel building Wednesday.

The evidence is to be presented to a grand jury this morning.

Meanwhile, police are holding William G. Anderson, 35, Springfield. He was booked on a charge of receiving and concealing stolen property belonging to the Dale Sims Clothing Store, where the blaze is believed to have originated.

Decision expected

PORTLAND (AP)—Circuit Judge Arno Denecke is expected to announce his decision today on a motion to dismiss a charge against Levi S. McDonald.

McDonald is accused of planning the dynamiting of 10 trucks January 31 in the Portland newspaper strike. He is a former member of the negotiating committee for the Stereotypers Union, one of a number of unions on strike against The Oregonian and Oregon Journal.

Watts sets appearance at coffee session

Alan Watts, Thursday's "Zen Buddhism" lecturer, will appear at a coffee hour this morning at 11 in the Dad's Lounge of the Student Union. Watts will answer questions during the informal session.

Shelley Berman coming Monday

A double-barrelled program of "All Sides of Shelley Berman" and the Gateway Singers will be presented in a two-hour program Monday night at 8 p.m. in McArthur Court.

The Gateway Singers, nationally known quartet, will present a variety of folk tunes. This will be a return visit for the Singers who made a hit in their debut at the University last year.

Variety Magazine in describing Berman's presentation said: "Top flight entertainment . . . using situation monologues with his pantomime and vocal gyrations to sell his skits, Berman cleans up via clever material and expert timing."

A few reserved and general admission tickets still are available at the SU Main Desk and the Broadway, downtown Eugene. Prices range from $1 general admission to $2.50 main floor reserved.

According to Warren Rucker, vice president of Alpha Delta Sigma, men's advertising honorary which is handling the promotion, publicity and advertising of the show, reserved seat tickets are almost all sold out.

Women's closing hours for next Monday, reports the Office of Student Affairs, will be either the normal 10:30 p.m. or 20 minutes after the conclusion of the show.

Panhellenic group chooses members

The Panhellenic Council for the 1960-61 year was chosen Wednesday night, according to Diane Baxter, incoming Panhellenic president.

Six members-at-large were selected. They include Carolyn Pferdesteller, and Mary Jo Stewart, who were returned to the council for their second year. The new members-at-large are Debbie Stevens, Sharon Raynor, Janice Hinton, and Sue Lathrop.

Rae Hinchey was chosen as publicity chairman and Janice Phillips as scholarship chairman. This is also their second year on the council.

Other officers are Judy Harding, public relations chairman; Janet Young, assistant publicity chairman; Carol Markewitz, social chairwoman; Meredith Mundorff, standards chairman, and Mary Morrissey, Junior Panhellenic president.

Every sorority which petitioned for an office has at least one member on the council, Miss Baxter said.