HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION
Ingemar Johansson stalked angrily from the ring Thursday while training for his return title bout with Floyd Patterson.

Ingo walked out after sparmate Cortez Stewart's right-hand punch jolted him in their second round at Grossinger, New York. Johansson claimed he didn't see the blow coming because of bright lights being used by movie cameras. He said such lights will be barred from now on.

At Newton, Connecticut, Patterson worked on his jabs during four rounds of sparring. He seeks revenge in New York June 20 for the third round knockout he suffered at the hands of Johansson last summer.

THE CLEVELAND INDIANS have purchased utility player Johnny Powers from the Baltimore Orioles. The 30-year-old first baseman-outfielder will join the Indians for tonight's game against the Chicago White Sox.

THE SAN FRANCISCO Giants bought first baseman-outfielder Dave Philley from the Philadelphia Phillies for the $25,000 waiver price. The 39-year-old switch-hitter will be used as a pinch hitter.

THE MONTREAL Allouettes of the Canadian Football League have traded veteran end Doug McNichol for Harry Lampman of the Hamilton Tiger Cats. Montreal general manager Perry Moss said previously that McNichol was on the way out "in the interest of team morale."

THE NEW YORK GIANTS have signed former Canadian pro football player Jack Delveaux for the 1960 National Football League season. Delveaux figures to be a top candidate for the right linebacker spot left vacant when Harland Sware was promoted to the Giants' coaching staff.

THE INDIANAPOLIS weatherman has forecast nice weather for the first day of speedway qualification runs Saturday. Drivers will be out for starting positions in the 500-mile race on Memorial Day. One car has been withdrawn because of a crack-up in a practice run. The driver, Chuck Hulse of Downey, California, wasn't hurt but the car's frame was twisted too badly to make repairs.

UO rained out; Idaho next

Northern Division Standings

	W	L	GB
WSU	9	2
OSC	6	4	2 1/2
Oregon	4	4	3 1/2
Washington	4	7	5
Idaho	3	9	6 1/2

Oregon and Washington State were rained out in Pullman Thursday, so the Ducks got a day off in their rugged road trip series, which continues today with a single game against the unpredictable Idaho Vandals.

IDAHO, WITH a 3-9 record in Northern Division play, doesn't appear to be too tough on the surface, but the Vandals knocked over Oregon State with a 13-run attack a few days ago, and hold an earlier win over the Washington Huskies.

Oregon handled Idaho with ease in a two-game series at Eugene earlier in the year by scores of 13-0 and 3-1, but the Vandals should be much tougher on their home field at Moscow.

WEBFOOT coach Don Kirsch will probably start lefty Fred Ballard against Idaho today, and come back with Dick Brede on Saturday.

Ballard shut the Vandals out on two hits in the Eugene series, and looked quite impressive in doing so, with 12 strikeouts. He'll be mighty hard to beat if his fast ball finds the strike zone with as much consistency as it did in that first game.

BREDE, WHO HAS had only one starting assignment, (he beat Portland, 5-0) has looked good all year long, and hasn't been batted out of the box yet. A steadily improving performer, Brede could be the number one pitcher on next year's team, unless Denny Peterson recovers completely from the sore shoulder which has kept him out of action all season long.

The rainout of the Cougar-Duck game Thursday means that Buck

Bailey's team swept the 1960 series from Oregon—the first time that's happened in quite a while.

AFTER THE Idaho series, the Ducks will take Sunday off, and then resume play Monday and Tuesday against the Washington Huskies, whom they defeated 4-1 at Eugene behind Bob Christianson a couple weeks back.
