Fog uncurls coed tresses

By SUE HUNTER
Emerald Staff Writer

The fog has set in, and from the looks of the sky, it will probably remain dismal until the end of the spring term.

FOR MANY of us, the weather promises only disaster. Our hair goes limp in the damp. Our wools begin to acquire that wonderfully baggy, unpressed look. Our shoes get sopping wet in the rain and look ten years old after three wearings.

So what can we do? Absolutely nothing that I know of. Of course, to be perfectly practical, we could cut our hair quite short, wear only tennis shoes, and replace all of our rumpled slim skirts with full or pleated ones.

Not that we will try anything so obvious. About the only real solution is to transfer to the University of California.

HAS ANYONE on the campus bought a pair of culottes? Culottes, of course, are those garments which have yet to decide whether to be skirts or full pants. After all of the publicity they were given during the Paris and New York openings, I have been waiting to see if anyone would buy something so calculated to arouse male resentment.

ONE NEW fashion to which men are not particularly opposed is the short skirt—both the new skirt length and the kilt type short skirt. The kilts or whatever the new term for them is can lead to problems, however. One graduate student I know claims that short-skirted frosh girls look disconcertingly to him as if they should be back in grade school. However, he's married; therefore his opinion shouldn't carry too much weight.

Leitzinger-Hibbard

Ann Hibbard, senior majoring in elementary education, passed a purple and gold candle at an executive meeting to announce her engagement to Dick Leitzinger, Sigma Alpha Epsilon majoring in foreign trade. Miss Hibbard, from West Linn, is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. No wedding date has been set.

McClure-Gould

A yellow candle decorated with yellow roses and green net was passed at the Chi Omega house by Linda Gould, a sophomore liberal arts major, to announce her engagement to Dennis McClure, who is stationed in Korea. Wedding plans are indefinite.

West-Donnelly

Pat Donnelly announced her engagement to Darrell West to her Zeta Tau Alpha sorority sisters at an after hours party October 7. Miss Donnelly is a sophomore math major; West is a physics major. They are both from Menlo Park. No wedding date has been set.

Calouri-Johnston

Lynn Johnston, sophomore Delta Delta Delta from Portland announced her pinning to Ted Calouri, Sigma Phi Epsilon Tuesday night to her Tri Delta sisters. A box of chocolates was passed around the table and when the box was empty, a piece of foil was removed from the bottom of the box, revealing a small arangement of rosebuds and violets and a black velvet heart with white lace on which the two pins were placed.

Fealy-Weed

French language major Linda Weed, Delta Gamma from Portland was married October 2 to Morris Fealy, Phi Gamma Delta from Oregon State College majoring in Engineering. The couple have made their home in Palo Alto while Fealy finishes his senior year at Stanford University.

Greenwood-Dowd

Dennie Dowd, Delta Gamma pledge from Portland announced her pinning to Bob Greenwood, junior Sigma Chi transfer from OSC.

Manning-Orput

A scroll of parchment adorned with a cluster of yellow rosebuds was passed to announce the pinning of Jackie Orput, senior sociology major from Portland, to Brian Manning, graduate student in business administration. Miss Orput is affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority and Mr. Manning with the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Shan Brown takes lead

Blonde, vivacious Shan Brown has been recently seen around campus as a brunette with graying streaks. Many wondered if she was maturing early, but upon further investigation found that the change was made to accommodate her role as Auntie Mame in the UT production of "Auntie Mame," which is now playing at the University Theatre.

SHAN, A JUNIOR majoring in drama began her career in drama when she was atending Dominican High School in Salem. Last summer she participated in summer stock productions of the Pentacle Theatre in Salem, and last spring played in the "Matchmaker," also a UT production.

Besides drama Shan lists golf, ballet, opera, and jazz as her interests. Shan, a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, has also been active in many campus activities and was a Kwama her sophomore year.

Lambda Chi's raid houses

"Shut up you gals" was the cry heard in the dining rooms of many women's organizations as three thugs armed with rifles and pistols walked into the room and asked for a girl living there. The thugs and the girls started for the door and were confronted by two policemen, who began firing into the ground.

One policeman proceded to read a court summons to the girl who was being kidnapped. The girl was summoned to the Lambda Chi Alpha "Alphatraze Dance" to be held the 22nd of October at the Lambda Chi house.

Those sororities and living organizations raided were: Alpha Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, University House, DeCou, Dyment, and Carson Hall.

Mortar Board sponsors UT event

Mortar Board, senior woman's honorary, has only a few tickets left for the Monday night performance of "Auntie Mame." Mortar Board is sponsoring this event to raise funds for scholarships, according to Nina Sackett, Mortar Board president. Anyone still wishing tickets should contact Margaret Ready or any member of the group.
