

Week end amusement includes plays, flicks

 Two plays, "Ben Hur," a water show and a fist full of exhibits head the entertainment parade for this week end.

Both Friday and Saturday, at 8:00 p.m., in Leighton Pool, a water show, "Sawdust and Sea-weed," will be presented by the swim team to further competitive swimming on the campus.

Among the fourteen acts will be a water ballet; trampoline, tumbling and acrobatic acts; a man shot from a cannon; and several professional entertainers. Admission is 50 cents.

"Auntie Mame" finishes its UT run tonight and tomorrow night, at 8:00 p.m. Roxanna Brown stars as Mame in Horace W. Robinson's production. Tickets for both nights are sold out.

"Bernadine," Mary Chase's story of a group of high school seniors who attempt the transition from boys to men, plays tonight and tomorrow night, at 8:00 p.m., at South Eugene High School.

The play, directed by Edward Raggazino, stars Gordon Scott, as a leader of a group of boys; Mike Krenk, as Wormy; and Sue Davis in the title role. Tickets, for $1, can be reserved by calling the SEHS ticket office, DI 4-4321, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., or by picking them up at the Little Theatre box office, Room 100, in the high school.

After a long wait, Eugene audiences now have the opportunity to see "Ben Hur," a film which has received more awards and honors than any other single motion picture.

MGM's new "Ben Hur," which stars Charlton Heston, Haya Harareet, Jack Hawkins, Stephen Boyd, Martha Scott and Cathy O'Donnell, is now playing at the Heilig Theatre. All tickets for the film, available at various prices, are reserved. Evening performances are at 8:00 (except Sundays, which are at 7:30); matinee Saturdays, Sundays and Wednesdays are set for 1:30 p.m.

"The Sword and the Dragon," a Russian-produced film being shown in the United States under the cultural exchange program, tells the story of Ilya, a strong Russian warrior who fights with the aid of a magic sword. The film, now running at the McDonald, is co-featured with "Cosmic Monster."

The story of the German "killer ship," Atlantis, "Under Ten Flags," starring Van Heflin and Charles Laughton, heads the bill at the Fox. On the same program is "The Boy Who Stole a Million," filmed in Spain.

The Mayflower is headlining Ingmar Bergman's "The Magician," a film of mystery and suspense which has received many outstanding reviews. The action is in Sweden at the end of the 19th century, and features many of the same performers Eugene theatre goers have seen in "Wild Strawberries" and "The Seventh Seal," other Bergman motion pictures.

Since Oregon plays its game in Berkeley, Calif., football fans not travelling to the game will have to be content with hearing the broadcast, on KUGN, at 1:30 p.m., and with seeing some of the local high school action.

At 8 p.m. tonight, Springfield hosts Klamath Falls, at Silke Field; North Eugene travels to Cottage Grove; and St. Francis tangles with Elmira, at Civic Stadium.

Other Friday night action sees Creswell against McKenzie at Lowell, Oakridge at Junction City, and Central Linn at Crow. Saturday night at 8 p.m., Thurston meets Sweet Home, on Silke Field, in Springfield. Drain is at Pleasant Hill tomorrow afternoon.

Tonight, at 8 p.m., "The Yellowstone Earthquake Area," a lecture with colored slides by James C. Stovall, Professor of Geology, will be presented in Room 123 Science. Admission is free.

Faculty members and students are invited to attend the presentation of a Tom Hardy sculpture by Delta Delta Delta, tomorrow at 4:00 p.m. in the Museum of Art.

"The Inn of the Sixth Happiness" will be shown on the feature movie program Sunday at 2:30 and 5:00 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom. Admission is 40 cents.

Several interesting exhibits now being shown, include: an exhibition of books by the late French author, Albert Camus, photographs relating to Camus, and manuscript pages from "La Chute," in the Student Union Gallery.

Japanese wood block prints by Hokusai, encaustic paintings by Frances von Hevelingen, contemporary Japanese calligraphy (from the National Society of Calligraphers of Japan) are the current attractions at the Museum of Art, open daily except Mondays 1 to 5 p.m.
