fired by the navy from Cape Canaveral in a record-breaking test flight.

The advanced model went 300 miles farther than other Polaris missiles tested.

Described by scientists as hav-ing "more bounce to the ounce" the new Polaris is also designed for firing from submerged sub-marines.

Rioting in Africa

ALBERTVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Reports from the Congo say fighting has broken out again, between UN troops from Ireland and Baluba.

The Balubas massacred an Irish patrol on Tuesday and fired on Irish soldiers today as they attempted to enter the area.

Schools taken over

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A committee of New Orleans legis-lators took over the city's public schools from the school board to try to prevent integration, sched-uled for Monday.

A U.S. district judge quickly issued a temporary restraining order forbidding any state inter-ference with integration.

The city's public schools were under a federal court order to integrate last September, but ac-tion was delayed until next Mon-day.
