

PART OF World University Service Week is this wishing well on the porch of the Student Union. The amount donated to the well during the week has not been determined, but according to WUS week chairman Carol Stout, "contributions haven't been very good."

Auction Nets $124.75 For WUS Treasury

The most spirited bidding at the WUS auction at 4 p.m. in the Student Union Thursday came when Alpha Delta Pi beat out all competitors by paying $55 for the Fairmont Trio.

TOTALLY, auctioneers Dick Sorenson and Will Rader sold $124.75 worth of talent to various groups in the audience. All funds will go to WUS.

Colleen Nelson and Lee Coffey were sold for $6.75 to an unidentified group of girls, presumably freshmen, who wanted their services to go on flying speeches for a class office campaign.

MISS NELSON was introduced by Miss Coffey, a bongo drum enthusiast, and then sang a version of "That Old Black Magic," entitled "That Old Black Label."

The Sam Muller Combo, minus Sam Muller, who was playing baseball, and another member who had a toothache, according to the auctioneers—was sold to Douglass Hall for $29.

THE SURPRISE package turned out to be ASUO President Steve Schell and ASUO Vice-President Merv Thompson, who were bought by the YWCA, identity unknown, for $24.

Five fraternity queens, The Delt Queen, The Sigma Phi Epsilon Swamp Girl, The DU Darling, the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, and The Dearest Girl of Phi Kappa Sigma, were auctioned off to the Sigma Chi's for $10.

Ken Wilson, who did the bidding, says he bought them for the house because their sweetheart, Bobby Evans, was in the group.

Edit Board Sets Interviews

Emerald Editorial Board interviews of candidates for office will be held tomorrow in 221 Allen Hall. Results of these interviews will appear on Monday's editorial page. The schedule is:

Class Presidents — 9:00 to 10 a.m.

Class Representatives — 10 to 11 a.m.

Living Group Representatives—11 to 12 noon.

Senators-at-Large — 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

ASUO Presidents and Vice Presidents—1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

No alternate times are available.

Long Senate Meeting Concludes Year's Work

By SUE HUNTER

Emerald Senate Reporter

Meeting for nearly five hours last night, the current ASUO Senate wound up a year's worth of activities.

SENATE action included:

- Approval of fraternity hazing rules.
- Recommendation for the abolishment of scholastic eligibility requirements for extra-curricular activities.
- Adoption of an amended Greater Oregon charter, giving the Senate greater control over the organization.

Retraction of its approval of the Student Union jazz festival, with a recommendation that the Senate study the proposal further.

Approval of the ASUO budget for next year.

DICK SORENSON, IFC Presidents Council head, presented the rules governing fraternity hazing which prohibit "activities which involve physical or mental abuse or which are in any way morally objectionable."

The rules also provide that

"fraternity activities will be planned so as to allow adequate time for classroom participation and outside preparation."

FRATERNITY presidents and chapter advisors can be required to present signed statements to the administration guaranteeing that the rules have been followed. Failure to comply with the rules can mean charter suspension on recommendation of the IFC Tribunal, which has power to investigate suspect infractions.

Commenting on the rules, which have been approved by Acting President W. C. Jones, Donald DuShane, dean of students, said that they represent "a large step forward for the fraternity system at the University."

HE INDICATED that his office would ask for signed statements following each initiation period.

Jim Paulson moved that the Senate recommend to the student activities committee that all eligibility requirements for elective and appointive ASUO offices be eliminated.

THE VOTE on the motion was a tie, 13 to 13, and the deciding affirmative was cast by ASUO President Steve Schell.

The issue came up during a discussion of athletic eligibility requirements sparked by Steve Hintz's motion that athletic eligibility be governed by rules similar to those governing other extra-curricular activities. Hintz's motion failed.

SPEAKING in favor of Paulson's motion, Dan Williams stated that he felt the individual should accept the responsibility for deciding if he should continue to participate in extra-curricular activities at the risk of flunking out of the University, should his grades drop.

The Greater Oregon proposal (Continued on page 3)

Co-op Nominates Board Hopefuls

Co-op store members met yesterday to nominate candidates for board positions and to approve amendments to the constitution.

THE 60 MEMBERS present made nominations to fill the one sophomore and two junior board member vacancies. Sophomore nominations were Clark Stevens, Dick Imwalle, Dee Pollock, Colleen Craft, Nancy Erland, Marty Frank, Jane Brown, Jane Berry, Clara Larson, Mary Jane Matweson, Ted Casteel, Sara Richards, Sharlyn Gillis and Susan Fort.

Running for the junior office are Arden Johnson, Walt Evans, Ollie Crary, Bill Hutchison, Mary Donnelly, Georgia West, Doug Van Zanten, Craig McEwen, Sue Knight, Mary McLeod, Nancy Knox, Ira Wong, John Kennedy, Nick Oatway, John Atkinson, Toni Kenow, Donalle Speer, Mary Hazzard, Tom Atkinson, Gail Brayton, Toni Acre, Esther Andrus, Mary Lou Miller and Kathy Quaintance.

THESE CANDIDATES will be voted on in the regular ASUO election. Officers of the board are elected by the board members May 25.

Unanimous approval was given by the members to the amendments which had previously been approved by the board of directors. The amendments were suggested by Co-op lawyer Otto Van-

(Continued on page 8)

Reserve Now For Jr. Weekend

The Mother's Weekend housing committee today urged University students to make hotel and motel reservations for the May 12-14 weekend immediately if their parents are planning to attend.

Since there are only a few rooms now available in Eugene for the weekend, the housing committee has asked campus sororities to accommodate as many mothers as possible, according to Jeanette Cuendet, committee chairman.

Festivities Come May 8

Juniors Plan Fete, 'Kourt'

By JUDY BABICH
Emerald Contributor

With planning for Canoe Fete and other Junior Week activities in the final stages, the class of '62 is praying for fair weather and a good gate. According to Tom Herman, class president and general chairman of the May 8-14 observance, the juniors have added some new features to the 1961 program.

ONE OF THE new features, "the Kangaroo Kourt," is being kept under wraps by Junior Week officials. Designed to enforce traditions during the week, the "Kourt" will be staffed by junior men, who will begin patrol Monday, May 8. Monday marks the beginning of the program with an ROTC-executed flag raising ceremony at the Student Union at noon.

The Millrace Olympics will be held Tuesday afternoon and will feature traditional canoe races and jousting and the annual frosh-sophomore tug-of-war. The tug-of-war winner will be challenged by the juniors and the defeated underclass will wear beanies and ribbons the rest of the week. Ashore the juniors will sponsor sack races and a bring-your-own-pie eating contest for representatives of campus living organizations.

WEDNESDAY, the junior honoraries, Phi Theta Upsilon and Druids, will exchange uniforms for the day. Thursday, class members will paint the "O" on Skinner's Butte.

Friday will be "Bermuda Day" for the juniors, who also will present the "Friday at Four" entertainment in the SU Fishbowl.

THE 50TH ANNUAL Canoe Fete Friday night, depicting the theme "Command Performance," will begin with an original overture written especially for the Fete by John H. Hendrickson, audio-visual librarian, and recorded by the University Symphonic Band. Canoe Fete Chairman Brent Smith said today the student body's cooperation with Fete officials has been "outstanding," and said that "on paper" the floats promise to be among the best in Fete history.

Saturday's schedule begins with the annual Mother's Breakfast and business meeting in the Student Union. The Mother's Luncheon, which starts at 11 a.m., will feature entertainment and tapping ceremonies by campus honoraries.

AT 2:15 P.M. the varsity football team will tangle with the alumni squad at Hayward Field.

The Junior Week finale, the All-Campus Sing, will be held Saturday night in McArthur Court. Awards for individuals and living organizations also are on the program.