

Rally parade to highlight homecoming

A full agenda of homecoming events will greet students when they return to the University following the Thanksgiving holiday this week.

Pairings for the Friday night rally parade will be announced this Saturday. The parade will assemble at 13th and Kincaid.

ONLY ONE torch and one sign will be allowed per pairing. University officials have announced that no cars or firecrackers will be tolerated.

The Vibratones, a rock and roll band, will provide music from 5:45 to 6:15 p.m. while the parade assemblies. The University pep band and the Frosh 200 will also appear.

The traditional bonfire will be held at 7 p.m. on the baseball practice field. The Junior Interfraternity Council will be in charge of the fire.

CROWNING of the homecoming queen will be the highlight of the rally. Coach Len Casanova will also speak.

Crowds will then proceed from the bonfire to the dance, featuring the Vibratones and the Strugglers. The two groups will alternate on stage.

THE STRUGGLERS are a sing-along group from the Red Garter in San Francisco.

Students are urged to wear grubbies to the event. Admission is 75 cents or a 50 cent homecoming button.

Health grants offered students

University students are eligible for 103 National Foundation Scholarships in the fields of medical social work and medicine.

RECIPIENTS will be awarded $500 a year for four years, with the obligation being the intention of completing their education and of serving the health field.

Deadline for filing applications which may be picked up in the scholarship office in Emerald Hall, is April 1, 1962.

APPLICANTS for medical social work scholarships should be sophomores in regionally accredited colleges who will enter their junior year in the fall of 1962 and plan to complete study for their master's degree in social work in a school that provides field instruction in a medical facility.

STUDENTS APPLYING for grants in medicine should be undergrads in regionally accredited colleges and planning to enter an accredited school of medicine in fall term of 1962. They must be accepted in such a school by April 1, 1962.

Grandmother lands

OKEMAH, Okla. (UPI) — A Pennsylvania grandmother set a new woman's balloon flight endurance record Monday. She landed near Okemah, Okla., after a 40-hour trip over three states. Mrs. Alford Wolf says she made the trip because she's "sick and tired" of Russian superiority claim.

Girl tells story of ship

MIAMI (UPI)—An 11-year-old girl has told Coast Guard investigators of a night of horror spent aboard the ketch Bluebelle that sank last week off the Bahamas.

Terry Jo Dupperault said she found her mother and brother lying in a puddle of blood in the cabin just before the skipper deserted her and the sinking ship.

A Coast Guard officer who declined use of his name is of the opinion it was a case of "wholesale murder" in which five others aboard may have met death by violence. Captain Julian Harvey was picked up in a lifeboat but killed himself when he learned that Terry Jo also had been rescued.
