

Phi Sigs Crush Lambda Chi

Kappa Sigma, Alpha, YMCA Win IM's

Intramural "A" basketball resumed competition yesterday as ten teams met on the hardwood to battle to victory or defeat.

Phi Sigma Kappa crushed a Lambda Chi Alpha quintet, 24-5, while holding them to a scoreless second half.

Lack of defense by both teams was more than made up by the hot shooting of Alpha and Sheldon. Alpha eventually scored a 43-35 win over Sheldon as Jack Jones, Alpha, burned the hoop with 21 counters. YMCA slipped by the Yeomen, 21-19, after overcoming a slender halftime lead by the Yeomen.

In other B-ball conflicts, Kappa Sigma rode herd over Sigma Nu throughout the game and drove them into the loser's column with a 21-13 victory. Stafford downed French, 22-17 in the only other contest of the day.

Wrestlers Await Oregon State

Oregon's rugged wrestling team, with a nifty 9-1-1 season record, will attempt to avenge its only loss of the year Saturday against Oregon State.

Coach Mike Reiter's Ducks travel to Corvallis to engage the defending Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champion Beavers at 3 p.m. The two schools freshmen teams meet at 9:30 a.m., also at Corvallis.

duel in the second half. But things turned out differently. The Phi Sigs suddenly came alive in the second stanza racking up a total of 18 pointers while holding Lambda Chi scoreless to earn a 24-5 victory.

Doug Cruikshank of Phi Sigma Kappa led the shooters with 12 points and played equally well on defense.

Alpha Over Sheldon

Jack Jones whizzed 21 points through the hoop to lead Alpha to a 43-35 victory over Sheldon. Halftime score was 26-20 in favor of the victors and provided the clue to the large score run up by both teams.

Rugby Club

The Oregon Rugby Club has announced its traveling squad for Saturday's scheduled exhibition match with Western Washington College in Port Angeles, Wash.

Those slated to make the trip include forwards Bob Jensen, Bill Del Blaggio, Ralph Martinson, Wally Wolf, Eric Lindner, Sterling Wolf, Steve Puett, Tom Keele, and Peter Reichenbach, and backs Vic Wortley, Alan Morton, Mickey Bruce, Ben Brown, John Jacklett, Gene Andal, Jerry Cronin, Ed Barry, and Arnie Mulheim.

A deficiency in defense was taken advantage of early by both units and two other men scored in the double figures.

Bart Blout and Bob Rinker shot for 11 points apiece to lead Sheldon scorers.

YMCA Rolls

Balanced scoring by YMCA and the Yeomen laid the foundation to a tightly played contest. The YMCA five managed to outlast the Yeomen as they posted a 21-19 win. The Yeomen had a slim one point lead at halftime but lost it as YMCA put up 11 points to their 8 in the second half.

Sigma Nu Falls

John Natt tallied 13 points to lead the Kappa Sigmas to a 21-13 decision over Sigma Nu. The stage was set by halftime when the Kappa Sigs held a 12-6 lead and the action followed the same course in the second half as Sigma Nu went down to defeat.

Stafford, 22-17

Stafford Hall grabbed an early six point lead and pursued it to the end to wrap up the game, 22-17, over French. Bert Waugh of Stafford scored eight points and received plenty of support from his teammates.
