Track, Rugby, Baseball Highlight Weekend Sports

By JIM FRAKE
Emerald Sports Editor

Oregon sports fans will have lots to choose from this weekend with baseball, track, rugby, and swimming events scheduled on campus.

TRACKMEN host the Stanford University Indians Saturday in a dual meet beginning at 1 p.m., a half-hour earlier than usual, with competition in field events. Running events start with the mile at 1:30 p.m. at Hayward Field.

The Stanford team is thought to be one of the toughest in recent years, and should give the Ducks a good work-out.

The Indians are termed particularly strong in the 220, 440, 880, and the mile relay. In the field events watch them in the discus, pole vault, broad jump, and the javelin.

IN BASEBALL, Oregon finishes its pre-conference schedule this weekend against the University of Portland and Portland State College. Today the Ducks meet the UP Pilots in a single game here starting at 3 p.m. Senior righthander Bob Christiansen (3-1) will try for his fourth straight win.

Saturday Oregon meets Portland State in a doubleheader at Portland. Robbie Snow and Dale Jansen have starting mound duties.

The freshman team has scheduled a doubleheader here Saturday with the Linfield College junior varsity beginning at 1:30 p.m.

IF IT'S RUGBY you like, the Oregon Rugby Club will meet a team from Bellingham, Wash., at 3:30 p.m. Saturday on the practice football field. There's no admission charge and it's a rewarding experience to see the Oregon team in action.

VARSITY GOLFERS, coached by Sid Milligan, will open their 1962 season today by traveling to Corvallis to meet Oregon State University. Saturday the Ducks meet Ft. Lewis at the Eugene Country Club. Jerry Cundari, Tom Shaw, and Don Clark look like the key performers this spring.

Fresh golfers will play a return match with Marshfield High School there Saturday morning. Oregon won its first meeting with MHS, 17-1. Coach Roy Tatum expects his team to dominate most of the winning games. Saturday, however, they will be without the services of two top men—John Hedlund and Don Smyth.

TENNIS competition this weekend will be in Portland when the Oregon tennis team challenges Portland University today. Reed College Saturday morning, and Oregon Medical School Saturday afternoon. The team was victorious in its only match to date.

SWIMMING this weekend will feature the first annual diving championships and diving clinic sponsored by the Oregon Dolphin Swimming Club. About 30 divers from Oregon and Washington are scheduled to participate.

Coach Don VanRosen noted that this is the first time that such an event has been sponsored in the Northwest. The meet, which starts at 10:30 a.m., for the morning events and at 3:30 p.m. for the remaining dives, should be both interesting and educational.

A diving clinic, which is discussed elsewhere in today's paper, is scheduled at 1 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

HAYWARD RELAYS will also highlight weekend sports for those interested in the state's top high school track talent. The two-day event, which opens at 1 p.m. today, will feature 88 high schools.

Class B and C schools compete today and the larger divisions clash Saturday; field events are at 10 a.m. and running events will start at 3 p.m., following the Oregon-Stanford meet.

Bellissimo Lists SU Bowling Rates

Lower bowling rates were recently introduced at the Student Union, according to Recreation Manager Lou Bellissimo.

Bowling is now 30 cents per line before 6 p.m. daily, and 35 cents per line or three lines by one individual for $1, after 6 p.m. Couples may bowl for 25 cents per line when the lanes are available for open play.

The SU lanes are open on the following schedule: Monday and Wednesday—noon to 1:45 p.m., 3 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday—8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m., noon to 1:45 p.m., 3 p.m. to 6:45 p.m., 9:30 p.m. to 10:45 p.m.; Friday—noon to 1:45 p.m.; 3 p.m. to 11:45 p.m.; Saturday—8:30 a.m. to 11:45 p.m.; Sunday—1 p.m. to 10:45 p.m.

Ugly Man Candidates Defeated by Senators

By RON WOODWARD
Emerald Sports Writer

About 400 spectators gathered in McArthur Court Thursday night to watch ten of the ugliest men ever to appear on the University campus meet the ASUO Senators in one of the most hilarious of all sports, donkey basketball.

THE SOLONS got off to an early lead which did not last long. The "ugly men" came back to tie the game at halftime, 4-4. The Senators overcame the "bad men" in the final stanza to win the game, 10-8.

Brutal tactics were used throughout the game but in the final period the Senators took advantage of their privilege to pull the ugly men from their donkeys. The players weren't the only ones using the tactics though, these . . . ah, animals, have tactics of their own. The toughest part of the game is trying to stay on the donkey while they kick, run, and, oh yes, stop.

Halftime entertainment was provided by a group of girls playing "musical chairs" on the donkeys. The girls would ride until the music stopped and then they would dismount and get to their chairs by the fastest route. Every time the music stopped one girl was eliminated until a winner was decided.

Also during halftime a collection of all "pocket change" was taken for WUS. Groups sponsoring the "ugly man" candidates made the collections by passing by the stands with blankets for targets.
