

Sorority to Hold Annual State Day

Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority will hold its annual State Day Saturday at Bev's Steak House. About 150 alumnae from all over Oregon will participate, plus the members from both the University and Oregon State chapters.

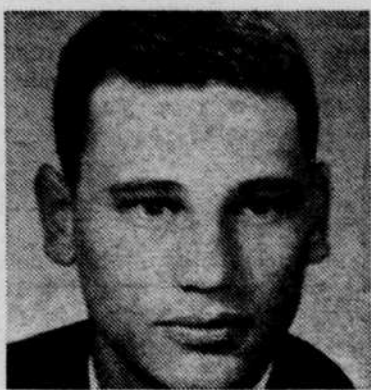

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Byron Krog, the Administrator of the Children's Hospital School. He will speak on the "Rehabilitation of Children," which is the national philanthropy objective of Zeta Tau Alpha. Also on the agenda is the presentation of awards to the outstanding girls of both Oregon chapters.

The new officers of the University's chapter will be introduced to the alumnae. The new officers include Judy Hamner, president; Teresa Dittich, vice-president; Patsy Gullikson, secretary; Sue Smith, treasurer; Julie Rice, ritual; Sharin Becker, historian; and Chris Midkiff, rush chairman.
