

Religious Groups Announce Sunday Activities

Baha'i Fellowship

Kavous Monadjemi, University student from Iran, will speak on "Religion in a Modern World," tonight in an informal fireside discussion of the Baha'i Fellowship. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ives, 1458 Alder Street. For free transportation or further information interested persons may call DI 2-1034 or DI 2-1060.

First Congregational Church

Charles F. Palmerle, recently designated YMCA secretary on campus, will lead the Student Fellowship discussion on "Where religion fits into college life" Sunday from 5 to 7 p.m. at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Carl Webb, 1959 Onyx Street (two blocks south of athletic field.)

Wesley Foundation

Methodist married students, Wes-Weds, will hold their first meeting of the fall term, a kick-off dessert, this evening at Wesley Foundation, 1236 Kincaid, at 7 p.m.

Sunday morning Brunch and Discuss, 9:30 a.m., will feature a study of the gospel of Luke and the Christian faith. At Wesley Forum, 6 p.m., Miss Grace Graham will lead a program on the topic, "Can Man Save Himself?" A supper will precede the forum at 5:30 p.m.

Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Wesley chapel at 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday.

Luther House

Kester Svendsen of the University English Department, will speak on "Religious Poetry" Sunday following 4:30 p.m. devotions and supper at the Luther House. He will speak at 6 p.m.

Study groups began meeting this week. The Bible study of the book of I Corinthians is to be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. and a study of one of Luther's works will be at 1 p.m. each Thursday. The third group will meet at 4 p.m. Thursday to study A. M. Hunter's text on the New Testament. The only charge for the groups is for the paperback text. All meetings will be held at Luther House, 1824 University.

Presbyterian Church

The Rev. William E. Hallman of Portland will speak on "The Changing Role of the Protestant Church in the Near East" Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at 1414 Kincaid. He has just returned from a year in Lebanon as a Fraternal University Pastor and has traveled for the World Council of Churches through Egypt and the Sudan. The fall retreat will be held Oct. 13 and 14 at the Chapel-by-the-Sea in Neiscott. The Rev. Ulrich Mauser, Presbyterian chaplain at Oregon State University, will be spiritual leader. Sign up sheets are on the bulletin board at Westminster House.

Discussion groups are being organized. Students may sign up now for the groups, which will each be limited to ten people.

Christian House

Students will meet for a dessert and informal get-together Friday at 8 p.m. at Christian House with Mr. and Mrs. John Davis as hosts. Baby sitters will be provided at 136 E. 34th Avenue after 7:30 p.m.

Sunday morning at 9 a.m. the study of "God Our Contemporary" will follow a coffee hour.

Sunday at 5 p.m. the Rev. Alan Tippett of Australia will speak and lead a discussion on "What Kind of a God Meets My Needs?" A snack supper will precede the discussion.

Registrations for the annual fall retreat to be held Oct. 13 at the Hildebrand home at the coast should be in not later than Wednesday.

Wednesday morning chapel services are held from 7:30 to 7:45 a.m. at Christian House. Wednesday evening a graduate seminar will hold its first meeting at the house with Kathryn Burlingham as hostess and Malcolm McCallum as moderator. The meeting, open to all upper division and graduate students, will begin at 9 p.m.

Dedication . . .

president of the board from 1923 to 1929.

Three daughters of Judge Hamilton will be guests at the dedication ceremonies and will present the University President Arthur S. Flemming the plaque commemorating their father. The daughters are Mrs. Ruth Hamilton Hermann and Mrs. Merle Hamilton Carson, both of Salem, and Mrs. Helen Jane Hamilton Clarke of Roseburg.

THE UNITS of the hall are named for ten former members of the University community. These include: William Pingry Boynton, Timothy P. Cloran, Marion F. McClain, Lilian Ella Tingle, George Haskell Collier, Frederick Stanley Dunn, Sarah Julia Burgess, Edwin Clyde Robbins, Mary Putnam, Boise Spiller, and Mary Watson.

It is at the suggestion of Mary Watson's husband, Walter Barnes, that the unit is named Mary Watson Hall, as that is the name by which she was best known to her students.

MEMBERS OF the families of those for whom the units are named will be present during the dedication.

Following the ceremony, luncheon will be held in the individual units. During these family representatives will present the plaques for each unit to the unit president.

The dedication ceremony will be open to the public.
