

YMCA Reception Welcomes Palmerlee

A reception to welcome the new executive secretary of the University YMCA will be held Sunday, in the Gerlinger Hall lounge.

Charles Palmerlee, who arrived this fall to take over the executive responsibilities of the YMCA offices, and Mrs. Palmerlee will be honored at a reception at 3 p.m. Sunday sponsored by the YMCA Advisory Board.

The event will also open the University YMCA observance of its 75th anniversary.

President Arthur S. Flemming will speak at the reception at 4 p.m.

Dr. Ray Hawk, dean of men at the University and president of the Advisory Board, is in charge of arrangements. He is assisted by Board members, who include: David Knox, vice-president; Dr. Richard Lindholm, treasurer; Winfield H. Atkinson, Richard Crakes, Rev. Robert Ellis, Dr. Arthur Esslinger, Ted Reynolds, John Morgan, Karl Onthank, Charles Pressman, Dr. F. J. Rummel, Douglas Spencer, and Dr. Norman Sundberg. Board member Kenneth Ghent is on leave of absence during 1962-63.

Mrs. Ray Hawk, assisted by wives of Board members, is in charge of tea arrangements. Serving during the tea hour will be Mrs. John Morgan, Miss Lois Greenwood, Mrs. Donald M. DuShane, and Mrs. Walter Martin.

University YMCA student officers who are participating in the planning are: Tom English, San Mateo, Calif., president; Dan Heiple, Estacada, vice-president; Russell Younger, Salem, secretary; Jeff Bodenweiser, Salem, treasurer; Ira Wong, Portland, member-at-large; Frederick Henriksen, Spenard, Alaska, chairman of the international program; and Richard Courreges, Eugene, chairman of community service.

Members of the Central Lane YMCA and YWCA are invited as special guests.

The reception is open to all interested persons.

Hall Story Selected For Anthologies

A short story by James B. Hall, associate professor of English, is included in a selection of the most outstanding stories and poems to appear in the "Western Review," a literary magazine in its 23rd year of publication.

His short story entitled, "In the Time of Demonstrations," has been reprinted in "A Country in the Mind," edited by Ray B. West, Jr.

It has also been reprinted in the "O. Henry Prize Stories," (1952) and in the New Directions anthology, "15x3."

Charter Day Opera Planned

"An Evening of Opera" with a Metropolitan Opera guest artist and professional artists from the School of Music, will be presented by the University as a feature of its Charter Day observance.

The unusual concert, which will include excerpts from operas, will be given in McArthur Court at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

BRIAN SULLIVAN, Metropolitan Opera tenor, will be the guest artist. Appearing with him will be Everett S. Anderson, Exine Anderson Bailey, and Neil E. Wilson, all of the University Music School faculty.

The major portion of the program will be roled from Mozart's

"The Magic Flute." The four artists will sing the main roles, supported by a chorus from the Music School's Opera Workshop.

Arias from several operas will be sung by Sullivan.

Anderson, who is an associate professor of voice, and director of the Opera Workshop, is directing the "Evening of Opera." The concert will be open and free to the public.

U.S.A. Students To Give Program

Cosmopolitan Club's first "National Night" of the year will be at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the First Congregational Church recreation room, 1050 23rd Ave. E.

Departing from the usual presentation of a foreign culture program, United States students will present "American Night."

American and international students and faculty members are welcome to attend. Those without transportation should meet at the SU east entrance at 7:15 p.m. No admission will be charged.

The program will include a two-act early American play, "In the Beginning," directed by Bonnie Tucker. Original settler will be played by Stephen Doll; new immigrant, Tom Morgan; wise man, Robert Ghent; disguised Indian, Xavier Houzel. Scene designer is Sandra Good and technical supervisor is Heidi Coates.

Beneva Williams will sing American songs, including a Negro spiritual and selections from a Broadway musical. She will be accompanied by Donald Addison.

Following the program, dancing and refreshments will be provided until 11:30 p.m.

Students to Observe Charter Day Oct. 16

University students are urged to participate in the annual Charter Day observance Oct. 16, which will have the theme of "Civil Liberties."

Classes which begin at 10 a.m. and at 11 a.m. on Charter Day will not be held so students may attend the Charter Day convocation at 10 a.m. in McArthur Court. University offices, the Student Union, gymnasiums, swimming pools, and the Library will be closed during this period so staff members may attend the convocation.

Poet's Corner

Consider the tremulous Grub-fly
With its overweight wings of chartreuse:
Its heavy wings won't let it fly,
And its legs are so short it can't walk.
But the heavy-wing Grub-fly gets by,
Although it's become a recluse,
'Cause on its friends it can rely
To bring it DQ and small talk.
