

BOOK
DISCOUNT
SERVICE

P.O. Box 32033,
Los Angeles, California

YEA
TEAM
fight...
fight...
fight...
give em...
the ax
the ax
the ax
...hold that line
fight...
fight...
fight...
...YEA
TEAM
whew
pause

take a break...
things go better
with Coke

Bottled under the authority of The Coca-Cola Company by:

Ducks Fall Before Husky Onslaught

By BOB HAGIST
Emerald Sports Writer

The cold-shooting Oregon Ducks were defeated 63-52 by a second-half surge of the Washington Huskies at McArthur Court Friday night.

The Huskies, who held a one-point edge at the half 26-25, gradually pulled away from the Ducks in the second half. Steve Wilson, a 6-7 junior forward led the way, scoring 16 of his game-high 21 points in the second half. Steve Jones led Oregon with 15 points.

Both teams were as cold as the weather in the first half. Oregon hit 9-30 from the field for .300 while Washington had 9-25 for a .360 mark. The Huskies shot a hot .587 in the second half while the Ducks could manage only .385. For the game Oregon shot .339 on 19-56 and Washington had a .471 mark on 24-51.

The first half was marked by deliberate play and neither team was ahead by more than six points. The score was tied three times and the lead changed hands three times. The Huskies were ahead at the half 26-25, mostly on the shooting of Ed Corell who hit for 12 points.

The Huskies started strong and with 13:13 left in the first half led 11-5. The Ducks worked their way back and took the lead on Elliott Gleason's jumper from the right of the key with 8:17 to play.

Washington then went ahead and Oregon fought back to tie the score at 22-all with 3:40 left. Oregon gained the lead on the free-throw shooting of Glenn Moore, Jones, and Gleason, but a three-point play by Corell with :38 left gave the Huskies their 26-25 half time margin.

Jones popped in two quick fielders just after the start of the second half to give the Ducks a short lived three point advantage at 29-26. Charley Hart then came up with a three point play for the Huskies to tie the score with 18:11 left.

Both teams went cold for the next few minutes, but then big Wilson started to hit and in the short space of 5:09 he stuffed in 12 points. With 10:53 left on the clock the Huskies had opened up a ten point lead at 44-34.

Oregon fought back, but could never get closer than eight points, although they kept the crowd excited with their hustle and effort.

Jerry Anderson scored seven points in the last seven minutes as he led a vain attempt by the Ducks to pull the game out.

Wilson had 21 for Washington while Corell finished with 16 and Dale Easley hit for 13 before fouling out.

Jones was the only Webfoot to hit in double figures as the rest had difficulty in finding the hoop. Anderson finished with nine while Moore hit for eight. Jim Johnson and Gleason each got seven.

Washington led in rebounds 41-31 and hit 15-18 at the free throw line for a .833 mark. Oregon had 14-20 for .700 at the free throw line.

Washington (63)

	fg	ft	reb	pf	tp
Corell, f	6	4	12	2	16
Wilson, f	8	5	11	2	21
Easley, g	5	3	4	5	13
Hart, g	3	2	7	4	8
Paul, g	0	0	1	1	0
Lee, f	1	1	1	1	3
Peoples, c	0	0	0	0	0
Flowers, g	1	0	0	0	2
Sharp, g	0	0	1	1	0
TOTALS	24	15	41	16	63

Oregon (52)

	fg	ft	reb	pf	tp
Jones, f	5	5	8	4	15
Johnson, f	3	2	5	2	8
Moore, c	2	3	11	3	7
Mack, g	2	2	2	2	6
Gleason, g	3	1	1	2	7
Anderson, f	4	1	1	3	9
Yates, g	0	0	0	0	0
TOTALS	19	14	31	16	52

IM Schedule

Monday, Jan. 28

Basketball

3:50 Court 40 Stafford A vs. Sheldon A

4:35 Court 40 Alpha A vs. Morton A

5:15 Court 40 Beta Theta Pi A vs. Alpha Tau Omega A

Handball

4:00 Sigma Chi vs. Adams

EMPLOYMENT — SPECIAL AGENCY U. S. GOVERNMENT

A special representative will interview seniors and graduate students on the University of Oregon campus on January 28, 29, and 30, 1963. A variety of academic disciplines are needed in positions for employment in the U. S. and abroad. Of particular interest are students obtaining degrees in the following fields:

Accounting	Geography	Law
Area Studies	History	Mathematics
Economics	International Relations	Physics
Foreign Languages	Journalism	Political Science

For information concerning these positions and to schedule an interview, apply immediately to the Placement Service, Emerald Hall.

Erik the Red had no choice—but Vitalis with V-7 will keep your hair neat all day without grease. Naturally, V-7 is the greaseless grooming discovery. Vitalis® with V-7® fights embarrassing dandruff, prevents dryness, keeps your hair neat all day without grease. Try Vitalis today!

JOHN MACK, Oregon defensive specialist, steals the ball from Husky Ron Paul (No. 15). Washington posted a 63-52 victory over the Ducks Friday night.

Photo by Sands

Grapplers Beat SOC 24-6 In Recording Triumph

Oregon's wrestling Ducks stormed to their fourth dual meet victory of the season as they overwhelmed Southern Oregon College 24-6 before a sparse crowd in Mac Court Saturday afternoon.

Couch Mike Reuter's charges allowed the visiting Raiders a mere two decisions in chalking up the win. Dennis Radford dropped a close 2-1 decision to Doug Smith and John Polo was beaten 3-3 by George Moses.

Heavyweight Terry O'Sullivan executed an upset when he whipped previously unbeaten Jim Grush 5-2.

The win gives the Ducks a 4-2 record, identical to that of SOC, who came into this meet with a 4-1 record behind them.

Captain Doug Muck remained the only unbeaten wrestler on the squad as he posted a third round pin over Jerry Hull. Muck's match held the small crowd in suspense. After getting his opponent into a pinning combination it took slightly over a full minute to get the shoulders to the mat for the required two seconds.

Muck's pin was the third straight recorded during the afternoon. Before him Monrad Bjorge had recorded a second round pin over Trenton Douglas and Charlie Warren also had walked off the mats with a pin to his credit, this one over SOC's John DePlace in 6:18 of the third round.

Results with Oregon wrestler named first:

123 pounds—Dennis Radford dec by Doug Smith, 2-1.

130 pounds—Dave White dec Gary Holmes, 8-3.

137 pounds — Monrad Bjorge pinned Trenton Douglas (6:18)

147 pounds — Charlie Warren pinned John DePlace (6:52)

157 pounds—Doug Muck pinned Jerry Hull (8:24)

167 pounds—John Polo dec by George Moses, 8-3.

177 pounds — Bob Keeney dec Glen Moses, 5-0.

Hvywt. — Terry O'Sullivan dec Jim Grush, 5-2.

Before the varsity tussle, Oregon's strong frosh wrestlers triumphed over Cascade College of Portland 23-10. This win coupled with four straight dual meet wins gives Cec Eaves' grapplers a 5-0 record this season.

Given a 15 point advantage before the actual matches got under way, due to three forfeits—all in the first three weight divisions—the Frosh were never headed as they rolled to the win.

Results with Oregon wrestler named first:

123 pounds—Alan Sasaki won by forfeit.

130 pounds—Ron Hostetler won by forfeit.

137 pounds—Dick Wilson won by forfeit.

147 pounds—John Malpass pinned Mike Snodgrass (5:35)

157 pounds—Bob Mitchell dec Don Wiles, 9-4.

167 pounds—Dave Youngbluth pinned by Jerry Jensen (4:27)

177 pounds—Bob Blucher pinned by Bob Pyle (3:22)

Hvywt.—Ancer Haggerty pinned Herm Gartner (7:54)

Frosh Record 96-82 Win

Oregon's frosh basketball team pulled away from a 47-47 half-time tie and went on to rack up a 96-82 victory over Gideon Stolz AAU of Salem at McArthur Court Friday night.

The win boosted the Duckling's season record to six wins against a single loss.

Jim Barnett, 6-3 guard from Riverside, Cal., tanked 29 points to lead the Ducklings, while 6-0 guard Dave Kafoury added another 22 points to the winners' efforts, most on long one-handers.

Despite the scoring proficiency of these two freshmen, high point honors went to Dave Hollingsworth of Gideon Stolz. The center tallied 44 points, 28 of them in the first half.

Oregon coach Don Kirsch tabbed Hollingsworth as a "pretty good operator." The big center aided his team in leading by as many as ten points in the first half before Barnett hit a few to tie it up at intermission.

Kirsch added that 6-0 guard Rick Potter, who is out of action with a knee injury, is still a "definite question mark." He said that Potter hasn't worked out with the team since he was injured two weeks ago. The coach is hopeful that Potter will be able to practice this week.

The Ducklings host Sweet Home AAU Friday and tangle with the University of Portland Frosh Saturday at Portland. Both games are slated to begin at 8 p.m. The Oregon quintet was originally scheduled to play Portland last Saturday, but the game was postponed because of conflict with the track meet.

Scoring Summary

OREGON FROSH (96)—Franz 9, Jennings 16, Brockmeyer 4, Barnett 29, Kafoury 22, Powell 4, Nicholas 1, Coombs 2, MacGibbon, DeMers 6, Printz 1, Chase 2.

GIDEON STOLZ (82)—Gaviola 9, Brack 4, Hollingsworth 44, Nelson 6, Sato 13, Hellbush 6, Johnson.

Want to really get results?—Use Emerald Classified Ads—Phone DI 2-1411, Ext. 1818.