

This Weekend

Theatre Productions Head Entertainment Schedule

By LINDA BROWN

This is the kind of weekend when it's almost better to crawl into a hole and bury yourself rather than decide what to do and see. This is almost worse than finals week.

SOUTH EUGENE High School is presenting "The Lark" tonight and Saturday at 8 p.m. This is the Lillian Hellman translation of Jean Anouilh's story of Joan of Arc and was done on Broadway by Julie Harris. Tickets cost $1 and may be reserved by calling DI 4-4321.

The Very Little Theatre will open Wednesday with a good old fashion melodrama, "The Streets of New York." Reservations may be made by calling DI 4-7751. The play will run Feb. 6-9 and 12-16.

For those who haven't heard, Peter, Paul and Mary will be singing at 8 p.m. Saturday night in Mac Court.

TONIGHT the Frosh basketball team is meeting Sweet Home at 8 p.m. in Mac Court. Saturday morning is the departing time for the Ski Quacks trip. Sunday, a program for the organ and harpsichord will be given by John Hamilton, assistant professor of organ in the University School of Music auditorium at 4 p.m.

The Dizzy Gillespie Quintet is playing at the Eugene Hotel at 3 p.m. Sunday. There are 500 seats available at $2, $3, and $3.50.

The fifth annual USCF Pacific Northwest Open Chess Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday in the SU. The first round will begin at 11 p.m.

COSMO CLUB will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in Gerlinger and is featuring foreign student representative Wolfgang Finkbeiner and Tanganyikan graduate student Arnold Temu.

Tonight is SU Fun night at $1 per couple. There will be a movie from 7-9 p.m., dancing from 9-12 p.m. and games all evening.

The SU movie Sunday is "Blackboard Jungle" with Glenn Ford. This is the movie based on the explosive story about a teacher in a high school dominated by gangs.

The Film Society is showing "Kanal" a Polish film made in 1955. It tells of Polish partisans after the futile revolt of 1944 who vainly tried to flee the Nazis through the Warsaw sewers.

NOW FOR THE movies downtown. "Gypsy" is still playing at the McDonald. It seems that the subject matter is interesting enough to hold the audiences, particularly the last half-hour when Gypsy grows up. The music and acting is good too.

The New Eugene Drive-in and the Heilig are featuring two romantic comedies: Rock Hudson and Doris Day in "Love Come Back" and Rock Hudson, Gina Lollobrigida, Sandra Dee and Bob by Darin in "Come September." That Rock really gets around. As for the plots . . . if you've seen Pillow Talk you've got the basic idea. They are both funny, however, and that's a compensation.

"What Ever Happened to Baby Jane" with Bette Davis and Joan Crawford is now at the Mayflower. I do wish someone would answer that question . . . this is about the third time around for that film.

THE McDONALD is featuring an excellent double feature this weekend. "Divorce Italian-Style" with Marcello Mastroianni (who made such a splash in La Dolce Vita). It is the only film that Time, Newsweek and Saturday Review have agreed on. It is a tale about a man who wishes to divorce his wife but this is against the law in Italy. Thus he attempts to get a lover for her because if he can catch the two together he can shoot his wife and only get three years in prison for it. Believe it or not, this is a comedy. "I Like Money" is the co-feature and this stars that wacky British actor, Peter Sellers.

If nothing else interests you, you could try to figure out a way for snow to melt without leaving any water. That should keep you busy.

Ticket Sales Slow For Portland Benefit

Ticket sales on this campus for "College Premiere," a benefit dance in Portland tonight, haven't been too encouraging, according to Walt Evans, local chairman.

EVANS BLAMED the lack of interest on the heavy social schedule here this weekend. "It's hard to compete with house dances and the Military Ball on one night and Peter, Paul and Mary the next night," he said.

The dance, which will benefit the Portland Symphony, is expected to draw several hundred students from throughout Oregon and Washington. The affair will be held at two different hotels in Portland between 9 p.m. today and 1 a.m. Saturday.

Bob Wilhelm, who is promoting the dance at Oregon State, told the Emerald late Thursday that he had sold about 50 tickets. Students were reminded that tickets would be sold until about 6:30 p.m. today in front of the Multnomah and Benson Hotels in Portland.

ENTERTAINMENT will be provided by folk singers Bud and Travis at both hotels. The Multnomah Hotel will be decorated in "Oklahoma"-fashion and will feature Broadway musical comedy performer Jerry Porsche, who will sing several songs, and the dancing music of Jerry Van Hoomison and his orchestra.

A lampoon edition of Mademoiselle magazine will feature giveaway fashions and records. A cartoon production by Vern Green, Milton Caniff, and Rube Goldberg will also be featured. Door prizes, Jantzen, White Stag, and Pendleton fashions, are planned and Capitol records will be given away as favors to the men. Women will receive make-up kits, according to Evans.

The Mayfair Room of the Benson Hotel will be designed with a Roaring Twenties theme. Twelve other rooms will be designed in the manner of such Broadway hits as "Kismet," "West Side Story," "Brigadoon," and nine others. Johnny Reitz will provide dance music.

Busses will shuttle guests between the two hotels.

Tickets cost $7.50 per couple.

Dress is semi-formal with either short or long gowns for the girls and tuxedos or dark suits for men.
